TREATY BETWEEN CANADA AND BRAZIL CONSIDERED

New Financial Crisis Develops In Australia PACT WITH REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AMERICA WOULD GIVE FILLIP TO TRADE

Scullin's Request For $65,000,000 Is Refused By Bank

Way Out Must Be Found If Nation Is to Be Preserved," Says Commonwealth Prime Minister; Huge Works Programme Projected; Damaged Exchange Serious Handicap In Australia's Overseas Financial Dealings

Canberra, Australia, Sept. 17.—(By the Canadian Press cable via Reuters.)—Australia's financial troubles seem to be again approaching a crisis. Sir Robert Gibson, chairman of the Commonwealth Bank, has rejected the Commonwealth Government's request for $25,000,000 for unemployment relief works, and $40,000,000 for ordinary works. These requests are in addition to the understanding the bank will cover governmental deficits to a certain limit.

The utmost the banks can do, Sir Gibson informed the Prime Minister today, is to provide $21,250,000 to carry out the unemployment relief works until the end of the year; property of $15,000,000, which would allow a surplus of 12 cents a bushel on the export of wheat; and finance the government deficits up to a limit of $90,000. It is expected the deficits will be at least twice that amount.

Prime Minister James Scullin stated the House of Representatives yesterday that he regretted exceedingly the bank's decision. He recognized the bank had heavy commitments, but a restrictive monetary policy, although necessary to provide against the future dangers, would avail nothing if it precipitated a social crisis, he added.

A way out must be found if the nation is to be preserved," the Prime Minister declared. "The government must consider what steps can be taken to avert disaster."

Overseas creditors should realize that Australia has applied drastic remedies deserving assistance, the Prime Minister said.

On E. G. Theodore, Federal Treasurer, informed the House that the government is considering the question of obtaining relief from the heavy exchange on overseas commitments. Australia's damaged exchange is a heavy handicap in overseas financial dealings. It takes 131 Australian pounds to meet 100 British pounds.

POLITICAL REPERCUSSIONS
The latest move by the banks is the latest move by the banks is to have political repercussions on the Labor Party. The caucus of the party, which is the largest body in the House, was prodded after signs of great reluctance, into approving the Minister's rehabilitation programme last June. Now it has agreed to the resumption of the old policy of Hon. E. G. Theodore for an increase of fiduciary currency. At the proposal was made last week, Mr. Theodore suggested an issue of $50,000 to be applied to relief for growers and work to relieve unemployment.

RUSSIAN FUR COMPETITION TO BRING ACTION
Toronto, Sept. 17.—The Retail Manufacturers' Association of America have issued the invitation of the Furriers' Association of Canada to meet in convention with the latter body here next week. The joint convention will discuss the rapid strides being made by Russia in the fur industry, together with the policies of the United States and Canada in meeting Russian competition.

S. HAD AN UNFAVORABLE TRADE BALANCE IN AUGUST

Washington, Sept. 17.—The United States had an unfavorable trade balance of $1,000,000 during August, the first such since 1926.

Exports announced to-day for August by the Commerce Department amounted to $165,000,000 and imports $166,000,000. This compares with exports of $165,000,000 and imports of $166,000,000 in August, 1930, and with exports of $165,000,000 and imports of $166,000,000 in August, 1929.

The eight months ending with Sept. 30, the United States had a favorable foreign trade balance of $3,000,000. Exports during the period amounted to $1,300,000,000, compared with $1,290,000,000 for the same period in 1930, and with $1,280,000,000 in 1929. Imports were $1,297,000,000, compared with $1,290,000,000 in 1930, and with $1,270,000,000 in 1929.

SEVEN HUNDRED ON STRIKE AT FRASER MILLS

Ten Per Cent Increase Asked By Employees of Canadian Western Lumber Co.

Other Plants Are Expected to Be Involved Before End of Week

New Westminster, Sept. 17.—Seven hundred employees of the Canadian Western Lumber Co. Ltd. at Fraser Mills, near here, went on strike this morning following refusal of the firm to grant a 10 per cent increase in wages.

The plant is being picketed by about fifty men, wearing red ribbons in their coats, who went out to the plant early this morning in automobiles from Vancouver and New Westminster.

Twenty members of the Provincial Police and ten men of New Westminster police are preserving order.

A number of employees, including Orientals, wishing to go to work, were stopped by the picketers and not allowed to enter the grounds.

The committee of the employees said that they had already suffered a 30 per cent decrease in three cuts of 10 per cent during the last year.

According to H. J. Mackin, manager, the demand for a 10 per cent increase was refused on economic grounds.

The men stated that some of the married white men were being paid as low as twenty-six cents an hour, while the Orientals were receiving only fourteen cents.

Differences of opinion is expressed as to the desires of the men to work. Mr. Mackin claims that 90 per cent of the men are willing to carry on.

The leaders of the strikers claim that none of the men want to carry on at the old wages.

Magistrate Raises Fines In Campaign To Check Speeding

One Autoist Goes to Jail, Two Have Fines of $50 Imposed as Bench Serves Warning to Speeders; Car Handled by Reckless Driver More Dangerous Than Loaded Gun, Says Magistrate

One driver is in jail, another has two days in which to produce $50 or else serve ten days and two others paid penalties in court as the latest steps in the police campaign against reckless motorists to-day.

Lawrence Alexander, colored, took ten days in preference to a $50 fine after pleading guilty to a common danger charge this morning.

James Scolar, convicted in Provincial Police Court yesterday afternoon on a similar charge, was allowed two days to pay a fine of $50, although intimating at the time he probably would be unable to pay and have to serve ten days.

Mr. Cameron turned over $50 in cash this morning after pleading guilty to common danger driving on Yates Street, and H. Basdale was fined $25 for a less serious offence on the same thoroughfare.

Magistrate George Jay, co-operating with the police in efforts to stop speeding and end frequency of accidents, played reckless drivers in general from the bench this morning.

WORSE THAN LOADED GUN
"A motor car in the hands of a bad driver is a dangerous weapon. It is more dangerous than a loaded gun," he declared.

The magistrate said persons who drove automobiles at high speeds in the city showed signs of insanity.

LIGHTS CHECKED
Other infractions of traffic rules are also receiving considerable attention from police. Persons who drive without tail-lights or with defective headlights are being warned with the promise of a summons if the warning is not heeded.

Carrying of driver's licenses and stopping at arterial highway intersections are closely checked. Motorists paid $5 fines in court this morning for failure to carry out these rules.

The latest fatality which took the life of a three and one-half year old boy on Cook Street has emphasized again the need for care on the part of drivers. Chief Thomas Heatley maintained that the last few weeks the toll of life and injury from automobile mishaps has been entirely too great in Victoria and vicinity and apparently only drastic action will curb it.

TICKET CASE IS SENT UP TO HIGHER COURT

Magistrate George Jay formally committed William Mitchell for trial this morning on a charge of unlawfully selling tickets for disposal of property by tickets. No evidence was put in by Stuart Henderson, defence counsel. The case is in connection with the drawing at the Willows exhibition.

FARMERS ON RELIEF WORK UNDER FIRE

Rob Destitute Men of Much-needed Jobs, Say Government Officials

Creation of Tribunals to Pass on Applicants Suggested

Farmers owning land and others renting farms are among those who have registered as unemployed on British Columbia lists and some are now working with relief gangs, it has been reported to the government. Investigations into the claims for relief of all applicants through the creation of non-political tribunals may be the outcome.

NOT DESTITUTE
"Pointed criticism of the farmers' action in seeking relief work has been voiced by government officials, who state while they realize this may have been a slack year for many farmers and they may be short of money they cannot be regarded as proper applicants for relief work. A man in the city with equivalent resources would not be accepted as eligible for the special unemployment programme and farmers registering are securing work mainly intended for men whose families are destitute, it is urged.

Many farmers from Salt Spring Island and many from Surrey are reported to be among those who have secured work in road camps. Criticism is voiced against them on the grounds that employment of such farmers in the camps for the winter when they might be occupied on their land preparing for crops next season, means that less money will be available for needy unemployed to whom work is essential to secure homes and food. Limited funds are available for unemployment.

Government officials point out, and employment of farmers who are not in dire distress or homeless with depleted funds mainly intended to help those facing poverty and destitution.

INVESTIGATING
Government officials making investigations claim the action of the farmers is unfair to the government, the taxpayer and to the destitute unemployed. Funds available will have to be carefully guarded to meet real cases of need and a man who is unemployed, conference likely to be held with the government, it would be better for a Coast man to head the union. He nominated Reeve Pritchard.

The new head in his presidential message discussed unemployment and the need for better distribution of commodities.

"In fact," he declared, "to-day we have stark poverty staring pop-eyed into the greatest galaxy of useable goods ever produced."

PLANE FORCED DOWN WHEN ITS FUEL GAVE OUT

St. Paul Island, Bering Sea, Sept. 17.—The naval patrol station here yesterday evening received messages from the Russian steamship Burias saying that Don Moyle and Cecil Allen, trans-Pacific flight aspirants, found yesterday after being missing since September 7, were not injured and their plane was undamaged in an island landing.

They landed on Navarin Island, off the eastern coast of Siberia when their fuel gave out in an attempt to span the Pacific Ocean from Japan to Seattle.

The Burias reported the airmen were plunging to their deaths when their plane was blown off the island by a storm, now raging in the vicinity, subsides.

The message received here was vague as to destination, saying the flyers might start for Seattle, flying straight over the Bering Sea and passing in the vicinity of this island, but later saying they might go back to Tokyo.

City's Application For Grain Rate Is Refused

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—The Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada, in a judgment handed down to-day, dismissed the application of the Corporation of the City of Victoria together with the Panama Pacific Railways Limited, for an export rate on grain by the Canadian Pacific Railways equal to that of the City of Vancouver.

The charge that the existing rates were discriminatory, upon which the applicant based its case, was unfounded, C. P. Fullerton, chief commissioner stated in handing down his decision, which was unanimously concurred with by the other two members of the board. The hearing was held here September 10.

The applicants asked the board for an order "directing the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to fix and incorporate in its tariff of tolls an export grain rate to the terminal elevator at Victoria, and that the export grain rate to be so fixed be the same as the rate to the city of Vancouver."

GANDHI IS RESTLESS AT CONFERENCE

Interminable Proceedings Lead Nowhere, Indian Nationalist Declares

Speaker For Europeans in India Pleads For Representative Authority

London, Sept. 17.—(Canadian and Associated Press cable).—Mahatma Gandhi has been, up to day, a silent spectator at the sessions of the federal structures committee of the Indian round table conference since he outlined his own position, and the demands of the Indian Nationalist Congress, on Tuesday.

Sometimes he has appeared restless as he listens to the necessary technical debate over details of the proposed federal Indian constitution, which was discussed at great length during the first round table conference. He has sought interviews with British leaders on the theory that perhaps he could accomplish more in such conference, at this early stage, than in the meetings of the committee.

PRITCHARD NEW HEAD OF B.C. UNION

Nelson Chosen For Next Year's Convention of Municipalities

Reeve William Crouch of Saanich To-day Elected Second Vice-president

New Westminster, B.C., Sept. 17.—Reeve W. A. Pritchard of Burnaby was elected president of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities at the organizations convention to-day. The reeve was second vice-president.

Nelson was chosen for next year's convention.

Mayor W. J. Moffatt of Kamloops was re-elected first vice-president, after declining to accept nomination for the presidency. In declining this office, Mayor Moffatt said that, with unemployment conferences likely to be held with the government, it would be better for a Coast man to head the union. He nominated Reeve Pritchard.

The new head in his presidential message discussed unemployment and the need for better distribution of commodities.

"In fact," he declared, "to-day we have stark poverty staring pop-eyed into the greatest galaxy of useable goods ever produced."

New Directorate To Carry Beauharnois Enterprise Forward

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—With the Dominion and Quebec Governments in agreement that the Beauharnois project should be continued, the probability appears that attention will be turned shortly to the question of reorganization of the present company.

It is understood the existing directorate will be eliminated and a new set of executive officers installed in the carrying out of the enterprise. The personnel of the new directorate has not been decided upon.

In the meantime, ample funds are available for the continued prosecution of the work. The reorganizing and house-clearing will be conducted under sane and well-thought-out lines with no compulsion to make haste. Anticipations are that early steps in the way of reorganization will take place.

PACIFIC ROAD FROM ALASKA TO CAPE HORN

Proposed Highway to Be Discussed By Pacific Foreign Trade Council

Haines Criticizes High Tariff, Unbalanced Price-wage Situation and Gloom

Oakland, Calif., Sept. 17.—With the advice "we should not be unduly gloomy," A. F. Haines, general manager of the American Mail Steamship Line in Seattle, opened the eighth annual Pacific Foreign Trade Council here to-day.

Mr. Haines is president of the council.

President Haines criticized a "high tariff, price fixing, the unbalanced price-wage situation, inefficient distribution and undue gloom." He expressed the view that these matters should be approached in the light of reason and experience and solved as nearly as it is humanly possible to solve them.

After his opening address Mr. Haines turned the meeting over to Chairman J. J. Flynn of Oakland, who outlined topics to be discussed at the sessions. These included a Pacific Highway from Alaska to Cape Horn, silver stabilization, tariffs with special reference to Canadian trade, and Pacific Coast shipbuilding.

NINE HELD FOR GANG MURDERS

Racketeers Slain at Detroit Allied With Notorious Purple Gang

Killers Secreted Revolvers in Paint Can, Obliterating Finger Prints

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 17.—Nine men were held for questioning to-day as police sought four underworld executioners whose pistols yesterday ended the rebellion of three liquor racketeers against gangland's regulations.

The men shot were Joseph Lebovitz, thirty-one; Isaac Sutter, alias Sutton, twenty-eight; and Herman Paul, thirty-one, all allied with the once notorious purple gang, who, police say, conducted a flourishing wholesale liquor business without regard for strict boundaries established by powerful underworld interests.

The killers introduced a new departure in murder by secreting their pistols in a can of paint, left casually under the sink in the apartment where the killings occurred. It was hours later when the weapons were found, tell-tale finger prints were obliterated by the paint.

MUTINEERS SENTENCED

Hundred Lost During Fierce Mexican Storm

Mexico City, Sept. 17.—Upward of 100 lives were lost in hurricanes that ravaged the Lower California peninsula over the week-end and descended on the Vera Cruz coast yesterday. It was estimated from dispatches to-day that more than fifty persons were killed at Santa Rosalia, Lower California, and dispatches from La Paz, capital of the southern district of the peninsula, said eight were lost when small vessels in the gulf were wrecked by the tempest. In addition, a number of ships were still missing.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 17.—(By the Canadian Press).—Canada and Brazil, it is reported, may shortly negotiate a trade treaty. No treaty on trade at present exists between the two countries.

The South American country, it is understood, is giving very serious and favorable consideration to the matter of changing its system of a single schedule of tariffs, applicable to all countries whose goods are admitted into Brazil, to a bilateral method of preferred and non-preferred rates.

With a number of Dominion products placed on the preferred tariff list of Brazil, Canada would likely admit some of the goods of that country under the intermediate schedule rather than the general tariff now applying to imports from Brazil.

CHIEF EXPORTS
Rubber manufactures, sewing machines, musical instruments, including radios, dried and canned fish are the chief exports of Canada to the South America Republic. Coffee, cocoa butter and nuts are among the chief imports from Brazil. Trade between the two countries runs between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 in value annually.

Any treaty arrangement as suggested would accelerate business between the two countries.

FACES INCOME LEVY OF $42,000

John Aird Jr. May Have to Pay Tax on Beauharnois Power Bonds

Canadian Press
Toronto, Ont., Sept. 17.—A special dispatch to The Toronto Globe from its Ottawa correspondent says: "Action is being taken by the Department of National Revenue to obtain payment by John Aird Jr. of Toronto of federal income tax on the $125,000 which he received from the Beauharnois Power Corporation, plus the $50,000 paid to him by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario in respect of the Madawaska deal."

"Mr. Aird has admitted that he paid no federal income tax on the $125,000 in Dominion Government bonds handed to him by President Robert O. Unsworth of the Beauharnois Corporation. His explanation was that the bonds were tax free. Inquiry at the income tax branch elicits the information that they are tax free only in so far as the interest on them is concerned."

"The rate of taxation on incomes of $175,000 is 43 per cent, less a discount of 30 per cent, and it is roughly estimated that Mr. Aird will have to pay the federal income tax collectors around $42,000."

MUTINEERS SENTENCED
Santiago, Chile, Sept. 17.—Six leaders of the recent naval mutiny in Chile were condemned to death to-day by a court-martial.

Two others were sentenced to prison for life and four received prison terms of fifteen years.

The fleet sailed after being tied up off Invergordon for some days. The sailors' protests against reductions in pay were met by a statement from the Board of Admiralty that the rates would be re-examined and cases of alleged hardship investigated.

Amalgamation Of C.N.R. And C.P.R. Is Believed Nearer

Toronto, Sept. 17.—Discussing the problems of the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National Railway companies, The Financial Post in a dispatch from Montreal to-day says:

"While Ottawa frankly discusses amalgamation of the C.N.R. and C.P.R., while the announcement of a proposed royal commission on railways hangs in the air, the two systems are being brought closer together by joint action on the part of Sir Henry Thornton, chairman of the C.N.R., and Edward W. Beatty, chairman of the C.P.R., to bring forward a plan for the amalgamation, eliminate duplication and otherwise solve common problems. But the railway presidents are hampered by public indifference, sectional jealousy and political control—three troubles for which the remedy is believed to be a royal commission of inquiry."

"But despite the difficulties, progress is being made and announcements of vital importance to the railways and users of railway service will shortly be made in Ottawa and Montreal."

CITY'S APPLICATION FOR GRAIN RATES IS REFUSED

February, 1930, the present application was launched.

The fact that the Canadian National has special facilities for delivering grain to Victoria, which the Pacific did not have, and that the Canadian National did not have as good facilities as the Canadian Pacific for delivering grain at Vancouver, had a bearing on the case.

At the hearing counsel for the Panama Pacific Grain Company based their application on section 314 (R) which reads:

"No toll shall be charged which un-

SIR H. GRUBB DIES IN DUBLIN

Astronomical Authority Is Credited With Invention of Submarine Periscope

Dublin, Sept. 17.—Sir Howard Grubb, noted authority on astronomical instruments and builder of them, died here yesterday.

Sir Howard has sometimes been credited with the invention of the submarine periscope, and he made many developments on it. It was he who suggested the construction of a movable floor for the telescope at the Dicks Observatory and he was responsible for many other important telescopic devices in various parts of the world.

U.S. Planters Threatened By Porto Ricans

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 17.—Warnings from a group styling themselves "Caballeros de la Noche" (Riders of the Night) that life and property would be destroyed if a new tobacco crop was planted, caused the United States government to place special police guards over their warehouses.

Two American cigar manufacturers were threatened by letter that the night riders were about to begin operations against their properties. Fifteen tobacco drying barns have been burned recently after growers were warned not to plant.

A tobacco co-operative has advised farmers not to plant until the last crop of 25,000,000 pounds, of which almost half remains in warehouses, is sold.

Governor Theodore Roosevelt called together representatives of buyers and growers before he left the United States. They have been conferring since in an effort to reach a marketing agreement.

SAANICH RECOGNIZED

The second vice-president is Reeve Pritchard, who has been elected by the members of the union. Gray of West Westminster was chosen secretary-treasurer for his fifteenth term. G. E. Martin of New Westminster, is again solicitor and parliamentarian.

The executive is as follows: Reeve D. W. Poppy of Langley, ex-officio as past president; Clerk R. F. Blundy of Saanich, acting mayor John Bennett, Vancouver; Reeve R. C. MacDonald, Coquitlam; Reeve J. T. Brown, Surrey; Mayor E. H. Briddman, North Vancouver; Reeve R. M. Gray, Richmond; Comptroller A. J. Fikington, Vancouver, and Alderman J. A. Worthington, Victoria.

Reeve Poppy, past president, was elected an honorary life member of the union.

FAVORS ELECTION OF PRIMATE BY GENERAL SYNOD

Abolition of "Life" Tenure By Rectors, Referred to Committee

Bishop Schofield Fears It Would Threaten Value of Anglican System

Toronto, Sept. 17.—The General Synod of the Church of England in Canada to-day approved in principle the first three recommendations of the report presented by the Anglican National Commission.

They were:

1. That the office of the Primate be enlarged so as to enable the holder thereof to have a greater influence in the general life and work of the church.
2. That the Primate be elected by the General Synod as representing the whole Church.
3. That a fixed Primatial Fee be established at the earliest possible date.

The synod defeated a proposal to make the minimum stipend of Anglican clergymen $1,800 per annum, with free house, and set $1,500 as the minimum.

The report of the Anglican National Commission also recommended the abolition of the "life" tenure enjoyed by rectors. To abolish the life tenure would threaten the value of the Anglican system, declared Rt. Rev. C. D. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia. He feared the clergy would become "rented" by the critics, parliaments or would be constantly on the move if the right of life tenure was abolished.

The question was finally referred to a special committee to select the general synod to affirm the principle that bishops or clergy giving unsatisfactory service might be removed from office. This was carried by a vote of 97 to 43.

Airplanes and Ships Continue Search for ESA

New York, Sept. 17.—Ships and airplanes to-day continued to watch for trace of the missing ESA, missing on a flight from Lisbon, Portugal, to New York.

The plane was sighted twice on its trip west, once at the Azores and later by the Steamship Pennland. The airplane had but 1,100 miles of its 3,700-mile journey left when it was seen by the Pennland, flying 100 miles off Cape Race, Newfoundland, and 395 miles from Halifax.

Aviators expressed hope that the three fliers, Will Roddy and Christian Johansen, Germans, and Fernando da Costa, a Portuguese sportsman, might have come down in some remote spot in Canada when they ran out of fuel.

The ESA had enough gasoline to keep aloft forty-eight hours. That time expired at 4:30 a.m. E.S.T., yesterday. They took a little food and a jug of water apiece.

Seattle Labor For Repeal Of Volstead Act

Seattle, Sept. 17.—The Seattle Central Labor Council last night passed resolution favoring modification of the Volstead Act, and asserting such action would mean a "return to liberty, decency and economic rehabilitation."

James A. Duncan, business representative of the Auto Mechanics Union and the prohibitionist, for the past twenty-five years, was ordered to "work and vote for modification" at the American Federation of Labor convention in Vancouver, B.C., next month. Duncan attempted to prevent passage of the resolution.

Albany, N.Y., Sept. 17.—The pilot who left his burning airplane in a parachute in southwestern Saratoga County had not been found to-day, twenty-four hours after a woman saw the ship fall. Belief grew that he may have been injured and is lying somewhere in the densely wooded neighborhood. The search for the pilot was to be continued to-day on foot and from the air.

Liberal Party Reaffirms Its Opposition To Tariffs

London, Sept. 17.—The Liberal Party executive committee to-day adopted a resolution reaffirming its support for the MacDonald Government, but asserting its opposition to imposition of tariffs.

"Discovery of world trade is hampered not only by payment of international war debts and reparations," the resolution said, "but also by tariffs which obstruct the exchange of commodities between nations, reduce the purchasing power of the people and have failed in other countries to remedy economic ills. A general tariff in this country would be no solution for our difficulties."

MEXICO CALLS UPON U.S. TO ENTER LEAGUE

President Rubio Says Co-operation Necessary to Obtain "Economic Equilibrium"

Mexico City, Sept. 17.—Hope that the United States would enter the League of Nations and align itself with Mexico and other countries in efforts for "betterment of the world," was expressed to-day by President Pascual Ortiz Rubio.

In a signed article in El Nacional, organ of the official national revolutionary party, the president said the co-operation of the United States is necessary to obtain "economic equilibrium."

Discussing Mexico's reasons for joining the league, he ignored mention of the Monroe Doctrine and said Mexico had not joined to squabble over demarcations, bring up unimportant quarrels, foment divisions or make an exhibit of itself.

AID NOBLE TASK

Now that we are in it our desires are to see there also, aiding in the same noble task, the countries that still are outside—the United States, without whose co-operation it is difficult to imagine a universal economic equilibrium; Argentina, which is a factor of first order in South American relations; Brazil, which, due to its importance and magnitude, still holds a part of the countries which by their own peculiar conditions can take a very appreciable part in this collaboration," he said.

GANDHI IS RESTLESS AT CONFERENCE

The committee this afternoon heard J. L. Gandhi, representative of the Indians in India, express the opinion of those he represented, that no authority should be transferred to any Indian government, that the representatives of all the native states and of all the classes in British India.

Unless Europeans in India can elect their own representatives to the Legislature, Gandhi said—in other words, unless they are granted a separate electorate—it is practically impossible that the native states and of all the classes in British India.

He also contended the oath of allegiance to the new government should not be that of the British Crown, which he considered as putting loyalty to the constitution above loyalty to the crown.

READY TO QUIT

Gandhi said to-day, outside the committee, that unless the government men leaders are prepared to assure him, they will accept the Nationalist platform of complete independence with any safeguards necessary in the interests of India, he would be ready to take the first ship back to Bombay. He has promised the government, however, that he will not resume the civil disobedience campaign, called off by the Delhi trustees last March, in any event, until the round table conference has had a chance to meet the Nationalist demands.

The Mahatma told the committee that its proceedings seemed to him to be interminable and to be leading nowhere.

Since Mr. Gandhi's speech Tuesday, the committee has been discussing a mass of detail under the agenda headed "direct and indirect methods of election."

The Nationalist leader declared that a feeling of oppression had been growing upon him ever since Monday and that it finally grew so great he was compelled to resign the membership in which the committee was going about its work.

He compared the proceedings of the committee to "a debating society," in which each member gave "an eloquent discourse upon the points severally raised," but said he did not see how the committee was ever to be reached.

INDIA-WIDE SUFFRAGE

He pleaded that the committee in its deliberations make provision for India-wide adult suffrage without restriction of wealth, class or literacy.

"While I want my people to have a knowledge of the three R's, I should have to wait until the Greek kalends for that to come to pass and I am not prepared to wait that long for their vote," he said.

Mr. Gandhi has agreed to make a series of public speeches in the interests of the Nationalist cause. He has received the sanction of Premier Ramsay MacDonald for such appearances.

He addressed the Labor members of Parliament yesterday evening in a committee room of the House of Commons. Next Wednesday he will speak at the Guild Hall.

MAKES PROTEST

Associated Press
London, Sept. 17.—Mahatma Gandhi protested against the representation upon the federal structures committee of the Indian round-table conference at its session to-day, declaring the members of the committee were not representatives of the Indian nation but of the government.

Detroit, Sept. 17.—Three men, known to the police as bootleggers and hijackers, were shot to death this afternoon in an apartment on the north-west side by five men, who fled in an automobile. Police said the three men were Hyman Paul, Isadore Sukter and Joseph "Nigger Joe" Kruntz.

BRITISH FLEET ORDERED BACK TO HOME STATIONS

The reports from Invergordon were that the men, despite the assurance given them by the Admiralty, had refused to obey orders for a time, and that the officers were obliged to employ "intensive persuasion."

A message explaining the government's promise to investigate allegations that economic hardships would be imposed upon the families of enlisted men, if the pay cut was accepted, was circulated among the ships, and on every vessel the officers stressed the need for all-round sacrifice.

The reports said that it was in many cases the men appeared to remain unsatisfied, and it was two hours before the ships weighed anchor. The Mahatma said that specific promises had to be given that the ships were indeed headed for the home ports.

To-day the fleet separated at sea, the vessels heading respectively for Inverness, Portsmouth, Plymouth and Chatham. The scheduled fleet exercises have been abandoned, and the ships will remain in their ports pending the promised investigation by the Admiralty.

UNREST AT GIBRALTAR

Meanwhile reports were received of unrest in other quarters. The men of the Mediterranean fleet at Gibraltar were said to be dissatisfied with the projected pay cuts, but to be quietly awaiting the outcome. The Daily Herald said the squadrons of the Air Force at Malta was discontented, but that no trouble had occurred. At the same time reports from the great naval base said everything continued normal there.

A dispatch from Cromarty Firth to The Daily Herald asserted the crews had been in actual control of the vessels while the officers stood by. It told of how "the proudest vessels of the navy lay idle and helpless while 15,000 sailors refused to obey orders."

When the commander-in-chief of the fleet signalled the battleship Valiant last Thursday morning to lead the detachment for autumn manoeuvres in the North Sea, her crew stayed below decks and ignored orders. The Daily Herald's story continued. The officers decided themselves to raise anchors, but they were told the strike was on. They raised one the men would anchor another.

Describing how the insubordination spread to other ships, the paper said: "The Valiant remained at anchor. Soon the sailors came from below decks and crowded forward. The cheer they raised was taken up by the other ships and the strike was on."

NO COMMUNISM

So far as Communism is concerned, The Daily Herald quoted one sailor spokesman as saying: "There is nothing of Bolshevism about the men here. Ninety per cent of us have seen Russia and we are not having anything like that here."

Another spokesman said: "We are fighting for our wives and children. The cuts cannot hit us aboard ship. But our wives, after the rent is paid, have only a pound left. How can we stand a cut of seven shillings and sixpence? (The cut he spoke of would be about $1.87 off $5.)"

STERN MEASURES

London, Sept. 17.—Any further refusal of men in the British navy to carry out orders will be dealt with by the Navy Discipline Act, Sir Austen Chamberlain, First Lord of the Admiralty, announced in the House of Commons to-day in a statement on naval pay reductions and the unrest which has followed them.

In reply to an ironical question whether the pay cuts were among those agreed to provisionally by the Government, he said that when he took over the Admiralty for the new National Government he found instructions to make the cuts in question.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald added that the Labor Government had been advised by the Admiralty, when the cuts were under consideration, that the men loyally would accept them, provided there were cuts all around in the public services and that there also was an adequate cut in the unemployment dole.

PRESS COMMENT

Canadian Press Cable
London, Sept. 17.—The British press has been reluctant up to to-day to discuss editorially the merits or incidents of the unrest in the Atlantic fleet over pay reductions. Some newspapers still prefer to keep silent. But such an offer of comment all express regret that the demonstrations ever took place.

"The navy has given the nation a shock," The Daily Mail declared. "Some British sailors in the heavy way that is their habit have gone too far. However good humoredly it may be done, refusal to obey orders in His Majesty's fleet is a grave occurrence. 5-lb. basket 23¢. ORANGES—Thin skin and juicy.....5¢ doz. 33¢. ## Fine Fair Says Premier Of Saanich Exhibition

Premier and Mrs. Tolmie Attended Fall Fair and Spent All Afternoon Seeing Building Exhibits, Stock Show, Children's Sports and Highland Games; Larger Attendance Than Last Year

By Staff Representative
Saanichton, Sept. 17.—"This is certainly a very fine fair, one of the best I have ever seen here, and I want to heartily compliment the exhibitors for the excellent displays they have entered," said Premier Tolmie in officially opening the sixty-third annual Fall Exhibition of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society in the Agricultural Hall at Saanichton yesterday afternoon.

Inspired by the displays of fruits and vegetables and other products and by the showing made by the stock owners, the Premier predicted a greater prosperity for British Columbia when the present depression passes. He urged the people of the province to buy the products of the province as one way to greater prosperity. Too much money is going outside for the purchase of farm products that are produced in the province, he said.

Accompanied by Mrs. Tolmie the Premier then made a tour of the building and visited the stock pens, and looked at the children's sports and the Highland games, remaining at the grounds until the exhibits were cleared away at 5 o'clock. Other visitors yesterday were Mayor and Mrs. Anson of Victoria, E. M. White, president of the British Columbia Agricultural Association, and W. H. Mearns, secretary of the association. All found the Saanich Fair most interesting and were strong in their praise for the products of the exhibitors.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

The attendance at the fair yesterday far exceeded last year. It was estimated by gate officials that the September weather and the fine nature of the exhibits helped to call out the people, the attendance being featured by the very large number of people from Victoria there. There was much activity on the fair ground, the stock show, the school children's sports and the Highland games holding the attention of some 1,500 people who were present. Judging of the stock took all afternoon.

Following are the results of the stock show and some of the interior exhibit results:

NO REDUCTIONS ON CAR FERRIES

C.P.R. Cannot Transport Autos For Less, Chamber of Commerce Told

No reduction will be made in the automobile transportation rates between Vancouver and Nanaimo as advocated by the Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade through the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island, the Victoria Chamber of Commerce has been advised.

"We feel sure," says a letter from E. F. L. Sturdee, general passenger agent, "that our present automobile rates are as low as can be made at the present time, having in view the cost of maintaining the frequency and present standard of the service, which we feel sure you will agree, is well in advance of the requirements of the traffic."

Reductions which took effect January, 1930, are referred to by Mr.
Sturdee.

"We have been for a number of years," says Mr. Sturdee, "concentrating our efforts on the development of automobile traffic to Vancouver Island by improving the facilities on our steamers, providing additional service and stimulating the traffic by operating during the summer months a purely auto-ferry service between

Steveston and Sidney, and, no doubt, you will appreciate the fact that we are this year providing a better service between Vancouver and Nanaimo than ever before, by operating both the Princess Elaine and Princess Victoria on two round trips each daily, making four sailings daily in each direction, each ship having a capacity of between sixty and seventy cars per trip.
Furthermore, we have arranged a very wide distribution of our schedules and itinerary pertaining to Vancouver Island and its resorts, over the highways on the mainland of British Columbia and throughout the states of Washington and Oregon, and our excellent services and publicity arrangements have, we feel sure, added very considerably to the flow of traffic to the Island."

VETERANS GIVE SOLARIUM PARTY

Music, Toys and Candy Delight Young Patients

The entertainment party of the Pro-Patria Branch of the Canadian Legion entertained the young patients of the Solarium Saturday. Willing hands soon made stage room, and the concert got under way, while the ladies feted the children from the very generous supply of oranges and candies the party had taken.

Masters Jimmy and Bobby McVie highly delighted the patients with vocal and character numbers, and Mr.
Harrison with his comic number won rounds of applause.

Will Cobbett in the character of "Bosco," the wild performing donkey under the direction of his "master," Billy Morry, gave a performance which the audience thoroughly enjoyed.
Young Harry Cooley with his harmonic, and Mrs. Winter at the piano, were highly effective, as well as the community singing led by Fred Sparks and Mrs. Winter.

Excitement reached a high pitch when Mrs. Ripley, Fred Sparks, and Jack Collins staggered in under a huge load of toys, which were distributed under the direction of the lady superintendent.

The party was then shown over all points of interest in the institution, and left when the tea bell rang, amid many cries of "come again."

Thomas Cracknell Sentenced to Hang

Canadian Press

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 17.—Thomas Cracknell, Harwich Township farm-hand, was yesterday evening convicted of the murder of his wife, Alice, November 4, 1930, and sentenced to hang here November 27 next. The jury deliberated for two hours.

Cracknell was convicted at a previous trial last February. At that time he was sentenced by Mr. Justice Iwaney to hang. Claiming that the judge had erred in his charge to the jury, Crack-nell's counsel, A. L. Hanna, appealed to the Federal Department of Justice for a new trial. This was ordered through the Ontario Court of Appeal.

ANNUAL BALL AT SAANICH IS SUCCESS

Many Attend Affair at Agricultural Hall as Wind-up to Exhibition

By Staff Representative
Saanichton, Sept. 17.—As a jolly wind-up to the Fall Fair the annual ball of the Agricultural Society was held in the Agricultural Hall here yesterday evening. Approximately 200 persons attended and danced with enthusiasm from 9 o'clock in the evening to an early hour this morning, the floor being in good condition and the music excellent.

Many people from town made up parties and motored out for the event. The general committee in charge of the dance was composed of R. D. Pope, Norman Tanner, C. B. Styan, A. Calvert and A. June. In charge of dining-room arrangements were Walter North, Bill Tanner, J. E. Nimmo, Miss E. June, Mrs. G. W. Malcolm, Pete Turgoose, Russell Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Haler, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Borden. Capt. Nat. Grey acted as master of ceremonies. To these energetic people goes the credit for the success of the ball.

During the evening the drawing for the roadster, offered as a prize in a guessing contest, was held. H. Stanley, of 306 Edward Street, Victoria West, being the lucky winner.

The following acted as convener of the various sections: Flowers, Mrs. J. T. Harrison; jams, bottled fruits, Mrs. A. Mackenzie; dairy products and household arts, Mrs. R. E. Nimmo; ladies' work, Mrs. A. Hayer; school work, Mrs. R. D. Pope; amateur photography, Mrs. E. M. Deacon; Indian department, Rev. E. M. Schellen; field crops, W. D. Mitchell; vegetables, J. A. Nunn; fruit, D. H. Hayer; poultry, C. H. Borden; horses, Alan Calvert; cattle, George Malcolm; sheep and swine, Chris Moses; rabbits, Captain H. B. Babington; goats, Thomas Grey; T. Mitchell; special classes, R. C. Oldfield, and Highland events, R. E. Nimmo.

Providing entertainment on the grounds yesterday afternoon was the Victoria Girls' Band, who rendered an enjoyable programme of light and classical music. There was also an ice cream and soft drink stall, looked after by Miss Alma Hayer for the Agricultural Society.

The following is a partial list of the judges: Vegetables, E. W. White and H. Anketell-Jones; fruit, W. H. Robertson and Lionel E. Taylor; jams, bottled fruits, D. H. Hayer; poultry, C. H. Borden; field crops, C. P. Black and Nicholls; dairy products, J. Bryce; cattle, O. C. Evans; goats, D. MacLean; poultry, Rev. C. McDiarmid; rabbits, Capt. Babington; eggs, W. Hayer; women's science, Mrs. J. A. Abbott; dressed poultry, F. North; school work, J. Jones and E. W. Clarke; photography, T. Waterworth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Milbank, who resided on Newport Avenue for some time prior to leaving for New York, were in the city during the last week-end and left again on Tuesday for southern California, where they are now making their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayward of Bowker Avenue, Oak Bay, with the Misses Louise and Florence Hayward, will leave this evening for Vancouver en route for Harrison Hot Springs to attend the wedding of Miss Augusta de Guesne on Saturday evening.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Abbott, 121 Moss Street, on Monday evening, members of Fairfield Church choir and a few personal friends being the invaders. Games and contests were enjoyed, after which Major Watts spoke of Mr. Abbott's long connection with the choir and of the esteem in which he is held by the church members. The singing of the hymn, "A copy of the new church hymnal," a birthday gift from the choir. Refreshments were served and dancing closed a delightful evening.

After the ceremony a large reception was held in the Foresters' Hall, which was bright with flowers, the supper table being centred with the three-tier bride cake. An orchestra played for the dancing, which was kept up until a late hour. After a honeymoon on the mainland, Mr. and Mrs. Harris will make their home at Colwood.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. R. Crover, looked smart in a frock of navy blue satin and hat to match, and held an arm bouquet of tuberoses, Ophelia roses and Eucharistia carnations. She was attended by Mrs. J. H. Bland in a blouse of eggshell satin and a Paris hat with a black ostrich feather plume. She held a bouquet of pink peonies, dahlias and scabiosa. Captain F. H. Cole supported the groom.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Fordham Johnson entertained at luncheon at Government House yesterday, when their guests were Sir Newton and Lady Moore and Miss Moore of London, who sailed last night on the Niagara for Australia. Mrs. Hobart Molson, Miss Helen Johnson and Mr. A. M. D. Fairbairn were also present.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the Rev. Dr. Clem Davies united in marriage Evelyn Maude Rothwell and William Warren Martin. Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for southern California. On their return they will reside in Victoria.

Miss Aileen Cullum entertained at tea yesterday afternoon at her home on Beach Drive in honor of Miss Daisy Homer Dixon, who will leave shortly for Vancouver, and Miss Dorothy Givins of Vancouver, who is visiting. The tea table, centred with a bowl of deep rose carnations, was presided over by Miss Margaret Merrick and Miss Pat McConnan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McKewen of New Westminster are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Jennings Burnett, Niagara Street.

Mr. Alex. McPhillips has been over from Vancouver on a visit to his father, Mr. A. E. McPhillips, Rockland Avenue.

Mrs. Schaeffer of Chicago, who has been spending the last two months in Victoria as a guest at the Windermere, has left for home in the east.

Mrs. Gertrude Huntly of Vancouver and her daughter, Miss Trudy Green, have been spending the last ten days in Vancouver as the guests of Mrs. A. O. MacRae, has returned to her home in Victoria.

Major H. W. Niven, Head Street, has received word of his transfer from Work Point Barracks to Winnipeg and will leave shortly for the mainland en route to Manitoba.

Miss Kate Gaudin, Fort Street, who has been spending the last ten days in Vancouver as the guest of Mrs. A. O. MacRae, has returned to her home in Victoria.

Major-General J. H. McBrien of Ottawa arrived in Victoria this morning and while here will be the guest of Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown and Mrs. Brown at Work Point Barracks.

Mr. Raymond Sandy arrived in Victoria this morning from Juneau, Alaska, to join his wife, who has been spending the summer months in Victoria with his mother, Mrs. E. J. Sandy, Mendocino Street.

Mrs. C. Stone, Mrs. Fred Stone and Mrs. Ted Sewell, all of Vancouver, arrived to-day to attend the Clark-Luney wedding, and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clark, Empress Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kirkbride, who have been visiting in Victoria since the middle of June, expect to leave on Sunday for their home in Santa Barbara, Cal. They will fly south in their own plane.

Mrs. A. H. Edwards entertained informally at the tea hour at her home on North Quadra Street this afternoon, being assisted at the tea hour by her daughters, Mrs. A. H. Harmer of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Phyllis Edwards.

Mrs. Archer Martin entertained yesterday afternoon at the tea hour at her home on Regent's Place in honor of Miss McGrath of Ottawa, who has been spending the summer months in Victoria, and who will leave next week for her home in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Milbank, who resided on Newport Avenue for some time prior to leaving for New York, were in the city during the last week-end and left again on Tuesday for southern California, where they are now making their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hayward of Bowker Avenue, Oak Bay, with the Misses Louise and Florence Hayward, will leave this evening for Vancouver en route for Harrison Hot Springs to attend the wedding of Miss Augusta de Guesne on Saturday evening.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Abbott, 121 Moss Street, on Monday evening, members of Fairfield Church choir and a few personal friends being the invaders. Games and contests were enjoyed, after which Major Watts spoke of Mr. Abbott's long connection with the choir and of the esteem in which he is held by the church members. The singing of the hymn, "A copy of the new church hymnal," a birthday gift from the choir. Refreshments were served and dancing closed a delightful evening.

NOW! Lip Rouge That Lasts All Day!

A French Discovery that Takes the Bother Out of Make-up.

Louis Philippe, temperamental French colorist, who has made make-up an art —and about whom all Paris is talking.
Shown here with one of his famous clients,
Betty Compton, of movie fame.

A way has been found that not only gives a perfect lip make-up any quicker and easier than any known before, but that holds perfectly all day long.

The creation of Louis Philippe, it nishes all smearing, all caking and ying.

It is called Angelus Rouge Incarnat and comes as probably the nearest thing to a permanent make-up yet discovered.

You can use it on BOTH LIPS AND EYES. And thus gain a color harmony that's amazing in contrast to ing separate lipstick and rouge—ch, invariably, of different color.

All department and drug stores
now under the name of Angelus Rouge Incarnat in two forms: Regular stick form, and in the charming little Red Box. Most women prefer the box form. A shade for every eye and complexion. Same price as other rouges.

WEDDING TO BE HELD AT HOTEL

Hon. J. H. King to Give Away
Miss Augusta de Gussemme at Harrison

A wedding of much interest to local friends of the bride will be staged at the Harrison Hotel on Saturday when Augusta, daughter of Mme. de Gussemme and the late Augustus B. de Gussemme of Oostdegem, Belgium, and sister of Miss Margaret de Gussemme, manageress of the hotel, will become the bride of Herbert Stua-art Cuddeford, formerly of Vancouver and now of Honolulu, son of Mrs. Cuddeford, Glasgow, Scotland, and the late Thomas E. Cuddeford.

The ceremony, to take place in the evening at 8:30 o'clock, will be performed in an improvised chapel with a Gothic arch formed of massed lilies, erected at one end of the foyer in the new wing of the hotel.

Tall cathedral tapers and graceful standards of pastel-toned gladioli will form the chancel, while white silk cordons will mark off the pathway of the bride party. A programme of nuptial music has been arranged by Miss Betty Newton and during the signing of the register Mr. Ernest Caldwell will sing
"Ave Maria."

Hon. Dr. J. H. King will give the bride in marriage, and other members of the entourage will be: Miss Camille de Gussemme, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Mrs. Nellie Bibby and Miss Leslie Rutten, senior attendant; little Miss Joan Anderson, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Anderson, Glasgow, Scotland, and Master Tommy Sawyer, ringbearer. Mr. Sam Cuddeford will be his brother's groomsman.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party will receive in front of the great stone hearth of the main rotunda. Here will be the bride's table, laid with an heirloom cloth of exquisite Point de Venice lace from Belgium, and centered with the mammoth wedding cake.
Clusters of American Beauty roses and candles in Sheffield candelabra will grace the buffet supper tables that are to be placed at one end of the ballroom. Presiding at the urns will be:
Mrs. H. Ramsell of Everett, Wash.;
Mrs. Fred H. Downing of Harrison
Lake; Mrs. Ernest Hayward of Oak Bay; Victoria; Mrs. W. J. Tuik of Vancouver and Mrs. Margaret Trappala.

Friends of the principals, guests at the hotel and members of the hotel staff—all will attend the ceremony, the reception and the ball that will follow the departure at 11 o'clock of Mr. Cuddeford and his bride, whose wedding trip will take them to Banff and Lake Louise, and then later to San Francisco, prior to sailing in November for their home in Honolulu.

The leg-of-mutton sleeve—almost exactly like the ones grandmother wore —are shown on new fall coats.

Gretna Green Wedding Shop Hit By Taxes

Gretna Green, Eng., Sept. 17.—The economy programme of the new National government of Great Britain has struck the famous "wedding blacksmith shop of Gretna Green," it was discovered yesterday through court proceedings at Dumfries.

The romantic smithy and its attached museum heretofore have been assessed at an annual valuation of about $185. The assessment for the year was about $4,500 and the prospect was that the smithy would have to increase the prices for its easy and quick marriages or go out of business.

An appeal was argued in court at Dumfries. The protest was on the ground that such places of historic interest should not be forced to pay high assessments.

The court finally fixed upon a valuation of $2,500 on the smithy and its ancient anvil. It was testified that 66,824 persons visited the shop and museum last year and that the revenue amounted to over $8,000.

JEALOUS WIFE CHARGED WITH SPOUSE'S DEATH

Eternal Triangle Involved in Murder of New Jersey Silk Manufacturer

Hackensack, N.J., Sept. 17.—Mrs.
Olga Ziegler, wife of the victim, and George Flanard, a former employe,
were in jail to-day accused of murder. Police said they had confessed to make common cause of their jealousy to plot the slaying of Otto Ziegler, silk manufacturer.

Ziegler was shot and killed as he walked from his garage to his home in Park Ridge, N.J., Tuesday night.

The motive for the killing, police said, was Ziegler's attentions to Miss Ruth Herring, to whom Flanard had been engaged.

Prosecutor George F. Leach said Flanard told him that the killing had been decided upon after he had tried to dissuade Miss Herring from accompanying Ziegler on a trip to Canada, and failing, had told Mrs. Ziegler of her husband's attentions to the other woman.

"If you don't kill him, I'll have to do it," Flanard quoted Mrs. Ziegler as telling him.

The prosecutor said Mrs. Ziegler's confession came after she had been questioned concerning the charges by Flanard.

Flanard was the first of the two to be arrested, suspicion falling on him from the vicinity of the Ziegler home after the shooting.

NO OFFENSE, SISTER MINE.

says Mrs. J. W. Nelson

"It's remarkable the way Rinso soaks out the dirt.
And let me tell you—Rinso washes clothes the whitest I've ever seen. 'Safely! I trust my finest cottons and linens to Rinso's nice creamy suds.
'I use Rinso for dishes and other cleaning, too.
It's very economical; a little of it goes so far—does so much."

MRS. J. W. NELSON—

Whiter clothes from washer, too

Millions use Rinso's thick safe suds in washer and in tubs. The makers of 37 famous washing machines recommend it for safety and for whiter, brighter clothes.

Cupful for cupful, Rinso gives twice as much suds as lightweight, puffed-up soaps, it's so compact. Get the BIG household package. Use it for dishes, for cleaning, and for easier washdays.

Guaranteed by the makers of LUX
Lever Brothers Limited, Toronto.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

One of the insurmountable difficulties mothers build for themselves is starting habits they do not want to continue. Later, the child has to be torn from these habits with great distress to himself and discomfort to the parent.

The habit of rocking the baby to sleep usually arises when the baby refuses to close an eye at the proper hours. This is primarily a question of nourishment or of irregular habits, not one which can be solved by introducing an unnatural way of going to sleep.

If the mother refuses to hunt for the causes of the sleeplessness and starts rocking the baby, she will later regret it a million times. Rocking baby to sleep is an entirely unnecessary accompaniment of slumber. Children who have never been rocked can lie down in any comfortable place and go to sleep. The child who has been used to this ceremony demands it nightly, however tired, unwilling, and irritated the mother.

WANTED—A CURE
Having done this for months, Mrs.
J.C. now demands some cure for the habit. It has become extremely tiresome to rock an eighteen-month-old child to sleep every night. This is what she writes: "She is eighteen months but only weighs twenty-one pounds, which I know is much underweight."

"She gets orange juice, cod liver oil, cereal, toast, and milk for breakfast.
She has vegetables, cottage cheese or eggs, and baked potatoes and milk for lunch. For supper, cereal, stamped envelope. Address your request to "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper.

To-morrow: "Teething Disturbances Include Appetitlessness."

S.P.C.A. INSPECTOR BUSY AT RACE MEETS HERE

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, held on Tuesday evening at the headquarters, Campbell Building, it was reported that much of the inspector's time had been taken up at the Colwood and Willows tracks during the racing season, and much assistance was given him by the officials of the racing association. It was found necessary to destroy one mare which had dislocated her left foreleg.

Cases of abandoning cats are still numerous; three kittens a few days old were found near the tracks, and were destroyed. Any person found guilty of cruelly abandoning any domestic animal is liable to a fine not exceeding $500, with or without imprisonment. Fifty-seven animals and birds were attended and 1,017 inspected during the months of July and August.

Cases of cruelty or neglect should be reported to the inspector, G. A.
Allen, E. m. p. 8351, or A. R. Sherwood, secretary-treasurer, E. m. p. 7588.

Ladies' Choir Has Resumed Practice

With Ira Dilworth conducting, the Victoria Ladies' Choir held its first rehearsal of the season on Tuesday evening. Mr. Dilworth welcomed the members back and expressed the hope for a successful season. Mrs. D. L.
MacLaurin, the retiring president, expressed her thanks for the support the choir had accorded her in the past and welcomed Mrs. H. A. Beckwith, the new president. Mrs. Beckwith then presided over the monthly business meeting which followed the practice.

Mr. Dilworth introduced Madame Scott-Burritt to the choir and voiced the pleasure of the Victoria Ladies' Choir in being fortunate enough to welcome her as a transient member.
Madame Scott-Burritt is visiting the city for a few months from Hollywood, California. Those Victorians who have had the pleasure of hearing Madame Scott-Burritt sing will realize what an asset she will be to the choir.

FOSTER FLAYS BRIDGE EXPERTS

Sixteen of America's contract bridge experts who gave their newly devised "standard system" to 300 teachers of the game in New York yesterday were branded as a "closed corporation" in official bridge circles by R. F. (Good Weather) Foster, seventy-nine-year-old British and international expert, now of San Francisco. Mr. Foster called for Australia aboard the Canadian Australasian Line's R.M.S. Niagara yesterday.

"They are trying to force their system on the public in an arbitrary way while independent teachers with better methods are lone voices crying in a wilderness of forcing bids and muddled conventions," he declared.
"These experts who are trying to set up a 'standard' system include men like Lenz, who has changed his mind about the game at least five times in the past year."

The one, two, three system of bidding, incorporated in the new system, Mr. Foster declared to be unsound for swept players. But men like Culbertson, who are devising fool-proof systems for the ordinary player and beginner, apparently have been given the cold shoulder, by the omnipotent sixteen, he said.

"Good Weather" Foster earned this nickname from a record of 127 Atlantic and Pacific crossings, during which ships he has traveled with have almost invariably had good weather. As he stepped on the bridge of the Niagara here to-day, Capt. T. V. Hill, who had heard of this reputation, greeted him like an old friend and as a good augury for a smooth run down to the Antipodes.

Death Won In Plane Flight To Aid Women

Associated Press
Anchorage, Alaska, Sept. 17.—Fighting wind, rain and fog, Pilot Al. Monsen of the Pacific International Airways battled his way on a 600-mile round-trip to Takotna, and return in six hours Tuesday to bring two women, one white, the other, an Indian, to the hospital here for medical treatment. Death won after he brought his passengers here alive, however, for Mrs.
Charles Brink, the white woman, and a baby born to the native woman, died during the night. The mother is expected to survive.

Monsen received an appeal for aid as he sat down to turn the plane waiting to set he hopped off. Through Rainy Pass he bucked storms and when in the Kuskokwim Valley fog shrouded his course. He followed the Kuskokwim River's winding through the valley, flying below the level of the tree tops to keep the stream in sight, making sudden and dangerous turns around the bends. The ceiling raised slightly and he fought his way through to Takotna, landing with his poultion equipped plane in a shallow rocky creek.

A warning against substitutes for genuine Kotex

YES, some substitutes are cleverly made to look like Kotex. But that doesn't make them the same.

Are they clean, like Kotex?
Scientifically made in surroundings of hospital cleanliness? Have modern methods been used, so that hands have never touched them? Are they machine packed and hygienically sealed in dust-proof packages?

These questions remain unanswered, when you accept a substitute of whose makers you know nothing. But these are questions of vital importance; because they are directly related to your health.

Be Assured Accept no substitute of whose origin you are uncertain. Demand Kotex—the genuine. Hospitals use Kotex. It fully meets their requirements.

Kotex is supremely comfortable. Shaped to fit. Adjustable.
Stays soft for hours.

CURIOUS CROWDS ANNOY KING IN SCOTCH CHURCH

By THOMAS T. CHAMPTION
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, Sept. 17.—His Majesty's understand to be regretfully considering the necessity of establishing a private chapel at Balmoral Castle in Scotland, following the display of unrestrained curiosity by crowds who have been flocking in all manner of conveyances to Craithie on the Sabbath to witness the King and Queen's attendance at the church there while they were staying in Scotland.

A recent Sunday produced the spectacle of a stream of cars and coaches forming an avenue three miles long to the church. "The King objects to a church service being made a curiosity show," said this month's issue of the Craithie parish church organ.

The Majesties are due to return to London at the end of the month for a few days, before going to Sandringham in Norfolk. The Queen left Balmoral earlier this week for a visit to Princess Mary and the Earl of Harwood at their Yorkshire seat.

When Her Majesty, following invariable custom, went to Harrogate on a shopping expedition yesterday, her experience was in agreeable contrast to that of a Sunday at Craithie, for Harrogate has always combined loyal interest with decorous behavior and non-curiosity.

St. Louis Cardinals Now Seek Games Won Record

National Champions Hoping To Chalk Up More Than 100 Wins

With Nine More Games to Play and Ninety-six Victories to Their Credit Gaby Street's Club Out to Smash League Record of 101 Set by New York Giants in 1913; Cincinnati Takes Double-header to Wreck Pennant Hopes of Giants; A's Celebrate Pennant Victory by Winning Hundredth Game

The St. Louis Cardinals were in possession of their second National League pennant to-day, having clinched the title yesterday without the necessity of firing a shot. Their only remaining goal before they tackle the Philadelphia Athletics in the world series, October 1, is to be the first National League team since 1913 to win more than 100 games.

REGIMENT LINING UP GOOD TEAM

With Three "Rep" Men, Promises to Be Good Senior Rugby Challenger

Judging from the names Denny, Especker has down on the little registration slips, the 5th regiment's new entry in the local senior rugby league will be no set-back. In addition to several of the boys who held down places on first division squads, including three "rep" men, the managers of the new squad have some of the best players of the 1930 intermediate league on their roster.

Le Marquand, fast inside three-quarter, who won his spurs at Victoria School, University School and on B.C.A. senior squad, which team represented in one of last year's seasons, has signed up, along with "Wamba", another "rep" man, who held down his position in the Victoria all-stars throughout the season. Frank Skilling, another "rep" man, who has played in the Vancouver McKenna Cup series and who was the J.B.A.A. uniform last year, also with the new team. The other men who played in the team's colors this season are: Jack Bellis and Bert Buller.

At Victoria College, the regiment recruited Roddy McInnes and Ted Jones, recognized as two of the best players who have been developed in the intermediate league. It is considered among the best teams in town and, unless he is edged up in heavier company, should be a tower of strength. Robinson has been holding the position of halfback for the Harroch boys, off and on for several years, and knows the game pretty well. Solvers, hard working and forward, who also wore the red and gold colors last year, will be on the line-up. Weaver, a new import from London, comes to the team with a reputation. He is reported to be a "tricky wing three, having down that place on the Cheltenham College fifteen in the Old Wyke. Gaunt, promising young school boy, and Norman D'Arcy, who also signed on.

Watching the Majors

Bottomley, St. Louis Cardinals' first baseman, went to the top of the National League batting race yesterday, his first time this year when he hit in two trips to the plate. Philadelphia and sent his mark 344.

Displaced Chuck Klein of the Athletics, who dropped to 343 when he hitless in two times up, Bill of the Cardinals remained a strong contender at 342 by collecting three hits in his trip. There was no change in American League leaders.

WILL INQUIRE INTO COST OF SCHOOL BOOKS

Vancouver Board Hears Criticism of Prices; Say Government Figures High

Vancouver, Sept. 17.—A thorough investigation of the cost of school books will be made by a committee of Vancouver school board appointed Tuesday.

Faced with a rising public protest against high prices charged for text books from parents and others affected by the trustees' decision to have the superintendent of schools inspect and any with whom they choose to cooperate attempt to find a remedy.

In addition to high prices, the continual minor changes in text books which necessitates buying new ones, was attacked.

Trustee C. M. Woodworth laid the trouble to dictatorship in Victoria. Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, he claimed, had assumed complete control of British Columbia's education, "and no man has ever done so much to hurt education as he has."

According to H. F. Hines, secretary of the board, all school books go first to Victoria to a government distributing house. From there they are sold to retailers.

GOVERNMENT PRICE HIGHER

Retailers are allowed a fifteen per cent profit on books they sell to the public. But department stores, he declared, sell below the price set by the government. It was therefore considered that if the government were to take over the retail as well as wholesale control, Vancouver residents would have to pay more for books, in view of the low department store prices.

In addition to this, Vancouver purchasers pay for freight on books both to and from Victoria. Actually, Mr. Hines said, it would cost the government more to handle the whole text book distribution than it does the big private buyers.

The question arose out of a letter from Edmund Pugsley, who made the assertion that it "is rumored that there is a league between school officials and the stationery stores."

He alleged that students would have marks taken off their examinations if they did not come equipped with certain specified books. Some students had to pay as high as $10 for books to start the term, he said. Many bought books that were hardly used.

WOULD ABOLISH FEDERAL LEVY

If Dominion Income Tax Turned Over to Provinces, Problems Would Be Reduced

Robert English of Alberta Shows New Way Out of Difficulty at Convention

New Westminster, Sept. 17.—If the Dominion government would withdraw from the income tax field and give this source of revenue entirely to provinces, provincial tax problems, and to a great extent, those of municipalities, would be largely solved.

This is the opinion of Robert English, deputy minister of municipal affairs in the Alberta government, as expressed in a paper prepared by him and read to the Union of B.C. Municipalities Tuesday by H. L. Seymour, director of town planning for Alberta. Mr. Seymour was formerly resident engineer for Vancouver's town planning consultants.

After dealing with the general aspects of land assessments and mill rates, their relation, and the effect on property of fluctuating administration costs, Mr. English referred at length to problems of taxation.

He observed that as the provinces and municipalities develop and their requirements become greater, and especially their needs for social service provisions, the burden upon land becomes heavier until there is a danger of taxes reducing the earning power of the property to such an extent as to jeopardize its value.

Faced with this situation, the only solution is a broadening of taxation.

SEES TAX SOURCE IN ALBERTA

"While in British Columbia an income tax is levied in addition to the federal income tax," continued Mr. English, "there is no such tax imposed in Alberta at present. I venture to say that in our province (Alberta) there are many individuals quite able to, who do not contribute to either local or provincial revenues at the present time. If a tax could be evolved whereby every resident of the province in a position to contribute was subject to taxation, then inevitably the burden of taxation would be spread over a greater field, resulting in a more equitable distribution."

Mr. English also observed that municipalities, while asking provinces to aid in caring for indigents and widows, also ask a share in provincial revenues, such as motor fees, gasoline tax and liquor profits. This situation means that if the land owner is to be relieved, other fields of taxation must be found.

WOULD END FEDERAL LEVY

Continuing, the deputy minister then suggested that the situation would be greatly helped if the income tax were confined to provinces and abandoned by the Dominion.

"While I know British Columbia has a provincial income tax, he stated, "I think you will agree with me that were the federal tax abolished the revenue to your province would be far in excess of the revenue now obtained from your income tax, and you would then be in the position of relieving the burden of taxation in regard to other imposts. In provinces where no income tax is at present imposed, the additional revenues might properly be used to relieve to some extent the burden of taxation within the municipalities."

FINED $50 FOR SPEEDY DRIVING

For driving to the common danger on the Island Highway James Scolar was fined $50 or ten days by Magistrate George Jay in Provincial Police Court yesterday afternoon. He also received a yellow driver's license.

Scolar said he could not pay his fine and was given two days to find it.

Constable Lashmore testified the accused had driven at a rapid rate of speed down the Four-mile Hill, swerving to the wrong side of the road at the bottom. Traffic was heavy at the time and a bad accident might have been caused by his actions, the constable said.

ABOLISH SLAVERY ETHIOPIA'S AIM

Emperor of Abyssinia to Free Two Millions By "Progressive Suppression"

Canadian Press

London, Sept. 17.—A pronouncement on the abolition of slavery in Abyssinia, where it is estimated there are 2,000,000 slaves, has been received from the Emperor of Ethiopia or Abyssinia, His Imperial Majesty Haile Selassie I, by the Anti-Slavery and Aborigines Protection Society. This is a reply to a letter sent by the society to the emperor which included an offer to send to Abyssinia a competent deputation to confer with the emperor and his government upon the whole question.

After expressing agreement with the principles set out by the society in their letter, the emperor added:

"We confirm to you that we are definitely decided to improve progressively the regulations concerning the status of slavery and to suppress slavery altogether. We say we are definitely decided with reference to the task we have undertaken for freeing the slaves still owned by the public, and not with reference to traffic of slaves, which we have already prohibited by decree. In some of the worst cases we have even gone so far as to inflict the death penalty."

"We have no doubt that you realize the seriousness of our efforts and the labor it has cost us to obtain the preliminary results known to you, and to lay the foundations of the great emancipation work. Certain persons, forgetful of the fact that slavery was once a universal institution and probably unconscious of what we have already accomplished or are about to accomplish, exaggerate for their own private ends when referring to Ethiopia."

"We are confident that you who have made it your special duty to study these problems know better than these sensation-mongers what a delicate task it is to abolish this old custom, and how over-hasty steps may easily have unhappy consequences. History shows that time is an important factor for the liberation of slaves."

"Although the status of slavery still exists in Ethiopia, it would undoubtedly be an unjust thing to put Ethiopian slavery on a par with the industrialized forms of slavery of Europe and America in former days, which the western mind of nowadays connects with this word. The difference is, above all, that slaves in Ethiopia are not deprived of anything to hope for in life as were their former brethren in the west. Our Christian people is not averse to seeing slaves hold posts, own property, embrace Christianity, and learn trades, and in this respect it is a people that deserves praise."

Financial reforms were to be inaugurated to ameliorate the economic situation and erect a basis for the final abolition of slavery and for the gradual improvement of the condition of the free servants, workmen, and agriculturists, who are so much more numerous than the slaves.

SS. LANCASTRIA TO TAKE TRIP TO IRISH PORT

Will Carry Special Party to Eucharistic Congress in Dublin Next June

The Cunarder Lancastria has been chartered by Thos. Cook & Son, famous world-wide travel organization, for a special trip to Dublin next June for the great Eucharistic Congress which will attract thousands to Erin's Isle. Thos. Cook & Son, it may be recalled, were recently appointed by the Holy Father as the official travel agent to the Holy See at Rome.

During the five days of the Eucharistic Congress the Lancastria will stay at Dublin to enable her passengers to make use of the ship as their hotel. This is an especially important feature in that it not only will make costs of a trip to the Congress cheaper but also will make the trip more comfortable since every available hotel and boarding facility of the capital of the Irish Free State will be taxed to the utmost during that period.

Cunard agents throughout Canada and the United States are urged to book freely for the Lancastria Eucharistic Congress trip. They will be protected by Thos. Cook & Son on the regular steamer commission.

There is certain to be a large movement to Ireland for the Eucharistic Congress, since many of Irish birth or descent in Canada and the United States will take the opportunity to attend the impressive demonstration of religious faith and at the same time see something of the new Ireland which is rising on the ashes of the old. To-day the Irish Free State is classed as one of the very small number of nations in the entire world which has not suffered materially from the economic depression. There is little unemployment there.

TERMINAL CITY ROBBERY SERIES

Liquor Store Looted by Three Men; Three Other Holdups Reported

Vancouver, Sept. 17.—Three unidentified men broke into the government liquor store, Carrall Street early yesterday and escaped with a quantity of liquor.

They refused to stop when fired on by police and made their escape in an auto.

Constable D. Shearer came across the robbers in the lane south of the Unit Block, Powell Street. He called on them to stop, but they ignored the order and he fired one shot in their direction.

The bandits sped away and the officer then fired a second shot which lodged in the rear of the vehicle. The officer was unable to commandeer another car in which to pursue it.

Investigation disclosed that the liquor store had been entered through a skylight and a quantity of liquor stolen. The extent of the loss will not be known until a check of the stock is made.

An armed youth held up Mrs. E. Yoneyama in her store on Main Street shortly after 11 p.m. Tuesday and robbed her of $10.

Bandits robbed two persons early Tuesday morning, according to reports made to the police. Mrs. M. T. Henshaw, East Sixth, reported that a man held her up in the 100 Block, East Sixth at 1 a.m. The man demanded her purse and when she was slow in obeying the command he snatched it from her, emptied it of $4 and handed it back.

Two men, one armed, stopped A. Mannino, East Twenty-third, near his home, at 12:40 a.m., and relieved him of $6.50 and a watch chain.

Arrive; Little
Local Fruit Now

Heralding the opening of the winter apple season, a fine carload of MacIntosh Reds from Kamloops arrived on the whole row this morning and are available to consumers at reasonable prices. Kamloops is the first to put this popular brand of apple on the market, but the whole Okanagan district is commencing to pick and send a carload to Victoria in a week.

Local fruits, plums, pears and peaches, are rapidly disappearing from the market. Pears sold well this year. The good prices paid by the canneries prevented a repetition of last year's glut, and the growers are reported to be satisfied.

NEWS IN BRIEF

A meeting of the Independent Labor Party will be held at the Labor Hall, Courtney Street, on Friday at 8 p.m. Jack Logie, I.L.P. organizer for Vancouver Island, will speak.

Charged with obtaining money and goods by false pretences from Edward Patterson, Cecil Carrell appeared in City Police Court this morning and was remanded to Monday without plea. Bail was set at $1,000.

Colonel Eardley-Wilmot of Shawinigan Lake will speak on "Modernism and the Miracles," under the auspices of the British-Israel Federation on Monday evening, September 21, at 8 o'clock, in the Alexandra Club Auditorium, Campbell Building, Fort and Douglas Streets.

The Scripture Union annual rally for children will be held at the Memorial Hall to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. At the close of the proceedings the rally will be served to the children. In the evening the annual meeting of the union will be held at the T.W.C.A. hall at 8 o'clock for adult members, when the year's reports will be presented.

Two trade commissioners will visit Victoria this month, the Victoria Chamber of Commerce is advised. Harrison Watson, Canadian Trade Commissioner in London, will be in Victoria September 28 and 29. F. H. Palmer, stationed at Oslo, Norway, will be here from September 28 to September 30.

The Friendly Help Society is faced with many requests from needy families for blankets and other winter bedding. With winter just around the corner and no money to buy fuel, many destitute families are in great need of warm bedding and adequate clothing. The society is making a list of the needy and will be gratefully accepting any donations at the headquarters, Market Building.

Postmaster G. H. Gardiner announced to-day the last sailing from Whitehorse for Dawson will be on October 6. The S.S. Queen, leaving Seattle on October 1, will connect with the sailing. The last full mails from Whitehorse will close at 3.15 o'clock on September 30. After that date parcels will not be accepted for mailing for Dawson. They are paid at letter rates of postage.

A. E. Sherwood was yesterday evening elected president of Ward 20, South Vancouver, Conservative Association. Other officers chosen were: Honorary President, Premier S. F. Tolmie; President, Premier S. F. Tolmie; Vice-President, Mrs. J. H. Tomes; Secretary, Mrs. J. H. Tomes; Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Steele; Messrs. Fletcher, Beckwith, Parker, and Miss M. Fletcher.

The last mail from Victoria for Telegraph Creek will be despatched from Victoria at 1.15 o'clock on October 8, to connect with the S.S. Princess Louise, leaving Vancouver at that date. Postmaster G. H. Gardiner announced. After this time mails for Telegraph Creek will be restricted to first, second and third-class matter. If parcels are sent they must be paid at letter rates of postage.

Expressing the opinion that the good will tour of the Victoria Island made by members of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce was a step in the right direction, H. G. Hinton suggests that similar trips be made to the island in the spring and fall. He also suggests that a trip be made on the E. and N. with an exhibition car to demonstrate to island citizens what Victoria produces for their consumption. Meetings could be held on the car, he says.

Australia might require considerable time to recover from the effects of over-borrowing and extravagance, says H. C. Davies of Perth, West Australia, financial editor of The West Australian. He left yesterday for Australia on board the R.M.S. Niagara. He has been studying conditions in Europe and Canada. Mr. Davies said one-third of Australia's revenue of Australia had been absorbed by pensions, bounties and bonuses, but Parliament was ruthlessly reducing each of them. He believed that the expansion of Canadian-Australian trade was possible, especially in dried fruits from Western Australia.

MAKES APPEAL TO WEALTHY CITIZENS
Should Realize Real Need Existing For Helping Unemployed

"Fred Lohsberg is making a special appeal to wealthy citizens for the 'Unemployed Fund,' a representative said this morning. 'The rich are urged to spend a few hours at campaign headquarters and see how they can help the need which exists for an adequate fund.'

"To-day's contributions, all in small sums, exceeded $500. If the money would pour in in substantial amounts."

"The file at headquarters is full of most piteous cases. The Friendly Help Society cannot begin to cope with the serious condition which exists, and greater support is necessary if unbearable suffering is to be averted."

"Children are cold and hungry; parents are desperate with worry. We appeal to every citizen to give according to their ability. Send or bring contributions to headquarters, View and Broad Streets, telephone G 4825, or to the city clerk, E. C. Smith, City Hall," he concluded.

Motor Crash
Brings Suit For $1,029 Damages

R. A. Wright, 1400 Taunton Street, was on the stand most of the morning under examination before Judge Cameron in the County Court on his suit for $1,029 damages against Thomas Wallace MacPherson, 135 Wildwood Avenue, arising out of a motor car crash at Montreal and Superior Streets.

Mr. Wright presented hospital and X-ray bills to show the extent of his suffering and injuries which laid him up for more than three months and which, he claims, have resulted in him not being the same since. He also claimed his car was demolished by the MacPherson car.

R. C. Lowe, counsel for Mr. Wright, also put in the box Dr. A. C. Sinclair, Edward George Newman, Irvine Alex Cameron and ex-Chief of Police John Fry.

Henry C. Hall, K.C., defence counsel, called as witnesses Dr. E. C. Hart and Robert Blanton Crombie.

The case is continuing.

HIGH PRESSURE TICKET SELLING IS FROWNED ON

Vancouver Dislikes Promotion of Affairs Under Guise of "Charity"

Seventy-five Per Cent of Gross Profits Usually Go Across Border

Vancouver, Sept. 17.—When is a charity not a charity? When it is a racket. And Vancouver should know all about it, for the city has been the stamping ground for high-pressure promotion agents from the United States who, in the guise of "charity," have been lining their pockets at the expense of philanthropic citizens.

The last week saw the second "agency" for these "near-charities" close its doors.

In the last twenty-two years I have exposed some extraordinary "charity" schemes and their promoters, but this high-pressure telephone sale of tickets for charity entertainments by commercial ticket-selling agencies is a new one on me," declares J. Howard T. Palmer, stationed at Oslo, Norway, will be here from September 28 to September 30.

ELECTORS SHOW KEEN INTEREST
Liberal Leader Encouraged By Enthusiastic Meetings on Mainland

T. D. Pattullo Meeting Citizens in Every Part of Province

British Columbians are keenly interested in public affairs and in close touch with questions of the day T. D. Pattullo, B.C. Liberal leader, reported on his return to Victoria to-day from a speaking tour on the mainland, accompanied by Major S. F. M. Moodie.

A number of meetings were held with the largest at Kamloops, Vernon and Nanaimo where big audiences gave cordial receptions to the speakers. The enthusiasm evidenced at every meeting made a deep impression on the Liberal leader and further strengthened his opinion, formed on several speaking tours in the last few months, that the next election would see a swing back to the Liberal party in British Columbia.

Thoughtful consideration to problems facing the province is being given by electors everywhere Mr. Pattullo said, and he saw in this encouraging report a basis for the Liberal party at the next provincial election.

Continuing the active speaking campaign he has conducted since his return from the mainland, Mr. Pattullo will leave Victoria again next week to address a public meeting in the Hotel Vancouver.

DE LORME TRIAL ENDS SUDDENLY IN COMPROMISE

Emile and Phoebe de Lorme's suit for $4,429 wages and loans against R. L. Cox, as administrator of the estate of John Hayhurst, former proprietor of the Douglas Hotel, came to a sudden end at the opening of its second day before Chief Justice Morrison in the Supreme Court here to-day when the lawyers agreed to a compromise settlement.

Under the terms of this settlement approved by the Chief Justice the de Lormes are to be paid $2,500, but with no preference as wage earners under the law which gives three months' wages before they rank as ordinary creditors.

Mr. de Lorme came here to attend the trial from Saskatoon, where he and his wife have been living with Mrs. Hayhurst, her mother, since Mr. Hayhurst's death and the time they left the management of the local hotel.

Who's Who
At Hotels

Possessor of one of the autographed original first editions of D. H. Lawrence's "Lady Chatterley," which have now risen in price to $1,000 a copy since Lawrence's death, Ralph Rogers has arrived at the Empress Hotel from Vancouver.

Mr. Rogers was in press work in the south a few years ago when he came in contact with Mr. Lawrence, who gave him a copy of the book and autographed it for him. He said he had no idea that the book would become valuable, but the demand from wealthy collectors of first editions in London and New York has carried up the price of Lawrence's first editions along with those of other noted authors.

Among the other Vancouver men over here to-day on business are W. C. Mainwaring, J. P. Hodgson, F. J. Dawson, A. L. Blomley, E. P. Corns, F. E. Dietrich, J. E. Buxton, John Boyd, C. G. McDonald, V. J. Chisholm, A. Matoff, J. M. Mercer.

Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Newson and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irons are among the other Vancouverites who arrived at the Empress Hotel to-day.

Among those from the south are Mr. and Mrs. C. Kincaid, Seattle; Mrs. J. C. Brundaban and Miss P. Sandy, Boise, Idaho; Miss J. P. Emmons and Hazel C. Northcross, Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myrick, San Francisco.

MOUNTED POLICE HEAD ARRIVES ON FIRST INSPECTION

General MacBrien, Newly-appointed Commissioner, Looks Over Force

On his first tour of inspection, Major-General J. H. MacBrien, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., newly appointed commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, has arrived in Victoria and is the guest of Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown at Work Point Barracks.

General MacBrien explained this was his first inspection trip as he of Canada's famous "mounted" and his chief object is to get acquainted with the personnel and conditions of service throughout the country. No changes in the force will be made at the present time, he said.

One of the force's chief activities is keeping in touch with Communist activities in this country, but there are no untoward developments in this connection, he added.

The general urged that Canada should maintain control of her air lines, pointing out that the United States had a remarkably well developed system of aerial transportation, with 30,000 to 35,000 miles of air lines organized. He said that aviation had been responsible for adding immense new wealth to Canada since the war, through the mineral discoveries in such fields as Great Bear Lake and Red Lake, made possible by the work of the airlines.

In the future trade will follow the airways as it has shipping and railways in the past, he said. "Aviation offers a bright future for a young man of to-day."

General MacBrien is president of the Aviation League of Canada. He will remain in Victoria until the end of the week, speaking at the luncheon given by the Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel at noon to-morrow.

General MacBrien and General Brown are old companions in war and peace, having served together for years in the permanent force and then during the war. They also attended staff college together.

LEADING FRUIT MAN PAYS CITY FLYING VISIT

Manager of California Fruit-growers' Exchange Tells of Record Citrus Crops

Paul Armstrong, Los Angeles, newly-appointed manager of the California Fruit-growers' Exchange, the largest concern of its kind in the world, told a brief visit to Victoria yesterday from Seattle, before going to Vancouver to meet wholesalers there.

Mr. Armstrong and a party, consisting of his wife, his advertising manager, orange sales manager and San Francisco district manager, have been attending the convention of district managers in Seattle. The party is now on its way to Minneapolis, Chicago, New York, and other cities.

Where inspections will be made of the exchange's branch offices. During the short stay here and on the trip to Vancouver, the party was attended to by Dick Lipsey, manager of A. P. Sisco (Victoria) Limited.

Mr. Armstrong said this season's yield of oranges, lemons and grapefruit, which are the three fruits handled by the exchange, has been by far the best in history. As many as 175,000 carloads have been shipped in the states of California, Florida and Arizona. No less than 6,000 carloads have remained unabsorbed by the fresh fruit market and have had to be sold to by-product firms.

According to Mr. Armstrong, the coming crop will also be extremely large. This is unusual, for ordinarily a small yield follows a large one. However, the chief worry of the grower next year will be finding a market to buy his abundant produce, Mr. Armstrong believes.

EXPLAIN WHY BUSINESSES
MOST USEFUL

Rotarians Give Humorous Talks on Vocations at Novelty Luncheon To-day

Delightful Programme of Vocal Solos Given By Madame Scott-Burritt

Numerous talks, in which members attempted to persuade their fellows that the occupations in which they were engaged were of cardinal importance to humanity, featured the luncheon programme of the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel to-day.

Dr. Varon Smith told the clubmen of the value of dentistry and of its place in the early history of the race. He declared it was a semi-religious business, and, after apologizing, explained his statement with the words:

"Dentistry has scared the devil out of more people than any other occupation in the world."

J. R. Kingham, speaking for the fuel industry, told of the uses of coal in banishing one of humanity's two great privations—that of cold. But it had another value, he said, adding:

"Coal is the only business that serves men here and prepares them for the hereafter."

More Hatt, introduced by T. R. Myers, as a "hardworking" individual with lots of "cast-iron" ideas, explained that civilization would fall to pieces if it were not for hardware. The very room they were dining in would collapse if the nails and bolts with which it was held together were withdrawn.

In more sober vein W. B. Wilson explained the value of the oil business which made it possible for perishable goods to be kept during their season, and at times when they were out of season. It had expanded in recent years, and had given work to many Victorians, he said.

With the words of Will Rogers, "advertising is the art of making people want what they can't afford and pay for with money they have not got," W. Clarke explained the value of the advertising business, which he said was that, although he was successful in opening the strings to the Scotsman's purse.

DELIGHTFUL SOLOS
Proceeding the talks, Madame Scott-Burritt presented a group of delightful songs, playing her organ and singing. Opening with "Trees," which she characterized as Victoria's theme song, she continued with an Oriental tone poem on peace. She introduced a touch of romance into her selection with "Love Me If I Live," and closed with "The Even Rose," a poem of Kipling's set to music.

Edwin Tomlinson voiced the congratulations of the Rotary Club to W. J. Clarke and Miss Edna Lunney, whose wedding is to take place this evening, and extended felicitations to the bride and groom.

Rotarian Frank Doherty reminded the gathering that the Rotary Club could be a "Hundred Per Cent" meeting.

Thanks were expressed to the management of the Olympic recreations, whose guests the clubmen were last Friday evening.

H. Vincent, a new member of the club, was introduced by Rotarian S. Armstrong, who spoke of Mr. Vincent's previous work with other Rotary Clubs in Canada.

Wm. Bell was congratulated on his birthday.

Mr. Rogers was in press work in the south a few years ago when he came in contact with Mr. Lawrence, who gave him a copy of the book and autographed it for him. He said he had no idea that the book would become valuable, but the demand from wealthy collectors of first editions in London and New York has carried up the price of Lawrence's first editions along with those of other noted authors.

Among the other Vancouver men over here to-day on business are W. C. Mainwaring, J. P. Hodgson, F. J. Dawson, A. L. Blomley, E. P. Corns, F. E. Dietrich, J. E. Buxton, John Boyd, C. G. McDonald, V. J. Chisholm, A. Matoff, J. M. Mercer.

Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Newson and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Irons are among the other Vancouverites who arrived at the Empress Hotel to-day.

Among those from the south are Mr. and Mrs. C. Kincaid, Seattle; Mrs. J. C. Brundaban and Miss P. Sandy, Boise, Idaho; Miss J. P. Emmons and Hazel C. Northcross, Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myrick, San Francisco.

MOUNTED POLICE HEAD ARRIVES ON FIRST INSPECTION

General MacBrien, Newly-appointed Commissioner, Looks Over Force

On his first tour of inspection, Major-General J. H. MacBrien, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., newly appointed commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, has arrived in Victoria and is the guest of Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown at Work Point Barracks.

General MacBrien explained this was his first inspection trip as he of Canada's famous "mounted" and his chief object is to get acquainted with the personnel and conditions of service throughout the country. No changes in the force will be made at the present time, he said.

One of the force's chief activities is keeping in touch with Communist activities in this country, but there are no untoward developments in this connection, he added.

The general urged that Canada should maintain control of her air lines, pointing out that the United States had a remarkably well developed system of aerial transportation, with 30,000 to 35,000 miles of air lines organized. He said that aviation had been responsible for adding immense new wealth to Canada since the war, through the mineral discoveries in such fields as Great Bear Lake and Red Lake, made possible by the work of the airlines.

In the future trade will follow the airways as it has shipping and railways in the past, he said. "Aviation offers a bright future for a young man of to-day."

General MacBrien is president of the Aviation League of Canada. He will remain in Victoria until the end of the week, speaking at the luncheon given by the Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel at noon to-morrow.

General MacBrien and General Brown are old companions in war and peace, having served together for years in the permanent force and then during the war. They also attended staff college together.

LEADING FRUIT MAN PAYS CITY FLYING VISIT

Manager of California Fruit-growers' Exchange Tells of Record Citrus Crops

Paul Armstrong, Los Angeles, newly-appointed manager of the California Fruit-growers' Exchange, the largest concern of its kind in the world, told a brief visit to Victoria yesterday from Seattle, before going to Vancouver to meet wholesalers there.

Mr. Armstrong and a party, consisting of his wife, his advertising manager, orange sales manager and San Francisco district manager, have been attending the convention of district managers in Seattle. The party is now on its way to Minneapolis, Chicago, New York, and other cities.

Where inspections will be made of the exchange's branch offices. During the short stay here and on the trip to Vancouver, the party was attended to by Dick Lipsey, manager of A. P. Sisco (Victoria) Limited.

Mr. Armstrong said this season's yield of oranges, lemons and grapefruit, which are the three fruits handled by the exchange, has been by far the best in history. As many as 175,000 carloads have been shipped in the states of California, Florida and Arizona. No less than 6,000 carloads have remained unabsorbed by the fresh fruit market and have had to be sold to by-product firms.

According to Mr. Armstrong, the coming crop will also be extremely large. This is unusual, for ordinarily a small yield follows a large one. However, the chief worry of the grower next year will be finding a market to buy his abundant produce, Mr. Armstrong believes.

Adverse Weather Fails To Stabilize Wheat On Winnipeg Market To-day

Canadian Press
 Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—Despite adverse weather conditions with consequent interruptions to threshing operations in the prairie west and reports of frost in some areas, wheat prices closed fractionally lower here to-day. Values at the close were 1/2 to 1/4 cent lower than Wednesday's finish.

October closed at 52 1/2, down 1/4. December eased 1/4 to 53 1/4, while May declined 1/4 to 57 1/4.

The market was without feature and held fairly steady until closing hour. Buying interest was limited but the small amount of hedges seemed to be well absorbed. A small export trade was worked.

Broomhall to-day reports that while Russian news is conflicting, it nevertheless considers that serious damage to crops is authentic, confirming the practical withdrawal of spring wheat. There has been further big rejection of Argentine wheat as being inferior to contract, according to the report, all of which points to North America being the chief source of supply. Reports of continental port stocks were reported by Broomhall to September 15 at 3,680,000 bushels, compared with 3,680,000 bushels on August 1.

Trading in cash wheat was slow with spreads on Durum and soft wheat being dull and featureless.

To-day's Grain Markets

WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Sept. 17.—Wheat: Market was dull and rather featureless with prices holding within a narrow range of about 1/2 cent. The market was practically all local with some buying against the daily bids, the market sinking into thinness during the last part of the session. There had been a fair export business worked from seaboard yesterday afternoon and a little out of this market, but the business was flat this morning with nothing further coming in.

Sales of wheat in all positions since the close of the market Wednesday were estimated at 500,000 bushels, mostly Manitoba. Black Sea shipments of wheat this week were heavy, being 7,920,000 bushels, of which Russia shipped 3,040,000 bushels. These figures were somewhat larger than expected owing to the reports of Russia withdrawing offerings, but it is more than likely that the shipments were contracted for earlier in the season.

Bradstreet's weekly North American wheat, showing some improvement from previous weeks. There was a fair inquiry from abroad for Manitoba, and some talk of foreign interest in rye, but the business was not business was disclosed. Liverpool eased slightly at the finish and closed unchanged, 1/4 lower, and Buenos Aires was 1/4 lower.

The stock market was again weak and Chicago wheat and corn was also easier. There was not much here, but pressure and country marketings were limited. The cash market was quiet with spreads about unchanged. Futures closed 1/4 to 1/2 lower. Barley oats closed 1/4 to 1/2 lower. Barley 1/4 to 1/2 lower. Rye closed 1/4 to 1/2 lower.

Flax—Dull and featureless, closing unchanged in all months.

Liverpool—Dull 1/4 to 1/2 lower, based on Winnipeg.

CHICAGO

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Wheat: The wheat market continued to give a good account of itself. Prices yielded slightly to scattered selling but on the dip there was good support. The market was quiet with some buying of corn. Russian offers light, but that country shipped 5,040,000 bushels the last week. Argentine shipments were estimated at 1,775,000 and reports indicate remaining wheat stocks of rather poor quality. Export trade was somewhat better with around 1,000,000 bushels of wheat having been worked since yesterday.

Domestic cash markets continue quite firm and there is little activity. Bradstreet reported clearance of 5,680,000 bushels from North America for the week. Receipts here, 34 cars estimated, primary arrivals 1,599,000 and 2,135,000 bushels.

The market is acting well and believe that all fair setbacks will be likely to be two-toed for the present. Deliveries, 100,000 bushels.

Corn—General demand for corn was slower and the market was also affected by spreading between grain and wheat, the corn being sold and all deliveries met scattered pressure. Country sales showed quite a pick up, being closed at 100,000 bushels. Receipts fifty-eight cars estimated. Primary arrivals 210,000 bushels, 455,000 bushels. Western conditions seasonable. Corn has matured rapidly and percentage of corn in frost danger is comparatively small. Two-sided market likely for some time. Deliveries 55,000 bushels. Argentine corn shipments were 10,236,000 bushels estimated.

Oats—Eased off a little with corn. Selling was scattered. Deliveries 30,000 bushels look for good buying on all setbacks.

Bluenose And Thebaud Will Race Oct. 17

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 17.—The first race between the schooner Bluenose of Lunenburg, N.S., and the Gloucester schooner Gertrude L. Thebaud for the sailing championship of the North Atlantic fishing fleet, was set to-day for October 17. The races are to be sailed off Halifax.

The owners of the Bluenose accepted the challenge of the United States schooner. The Bluenose holds the historic Dennis trophy, emblem of the sailing championship of the fishing fleets of the North Atlantic. This trophy, however, has not been placed in competition since 1923.

Last year the Thebaud defeated the Bluenose in a series of races off Gloucester in which the trophy was not at stake.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—Planning to speed up the company's schedule between San Francisco and New York, the Panama Mail Steamship Company yesterday announced that the steamers Santa Eliza and Santa Teresa would be put into the service.

These two fast steamers were formerly on the New York-South America run of the Grace line and the sister ships of the Guatemala and the El Salvador, Panama Mail liners. The new schedule, which will cut approximately one week from the former sailing arrangements will go into effect at once. Advice received at the general offices of the Dollar lines here yesterday said that the new line President Coolidge, would leave New York October 15 on her maiden voyage. She will clear for San Francisco.

A wireless message received here yesterday from the N.Y.K. liner Chichibu Maru said the vessel would reach port next Wednesday. She is carrying $2,000,000 cargo of raw Japanese silk and a passenger list of 465.

Sydney, N.S., Sept. 17.—After nearly a year in the Arctic awaiting transportation back to civilization, a shipwrecked crew of hardy traders from Peterhead, Scotland, were landed today by the Canadian government steamer Beothic, which had brought them down from the Royal Canadian Mounted police post at Lake Arbor.

Their schooner, Watta, left Shetland last September to trade in Baffin Land. Captain John Leonard died at sea and four days later the vessel was wrecked on a ledge off the bleak coast of Baffin Land.

The other members of the crew, Cecil Done, H. Turner, and Tom Armstrong, all of London, and Bert Bounds of Peterhead, got ashore and lived for a month in a shack that had been abandoned by the Mounted Police. As they could get to eat was some meat of dead walrus they found.

The following February Eskimo found and took them to the police post at Lake Arbor where they remained until the arrival of the Beothic.

The Beothic docked at North Sydney after seven weeks in the Canadian Arctic Archipelago, where she carried the annual supplies and relief to the various police and scientific posts scattered through that territory.

Face, Neck, Head Covered With Pimples. Healed by Cuticura.

"My face, neck and head were covered with pimples that were hard and inflamed. They were always itchy, causing me to scratch, which made them worse. They bothered me for several years and nothing seemed to help the trouble.

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I could see a slight improvement in my skin. I decided to buy some more Soap and Ointment and in a short time my pimples were all gone. I was healed." (Signed) Miss Florence Nelson, Percival, Sask.

Heart of Liane

by MABEL McELLIOTT

"Oh, you make me sick, all of you!" the woman cried. "Afraid of my shadow."

"You talk big, I notice," the man said. "But you keep your skirts clear. What a howl you put up when it looked as if there was going to be a leak on the Milly case. You, too, want it known that you were one of my tipsters."

"I have to live among them," the woman said sullenly. "It's my bread and butter."

"Well, you'd better lay off this pole," the man observed. "I wouldn't touch the story with a pole."

"Maybe the tabloids will then," sneered the woman. She stood up to go. Without ceremony the door opened and a big young man shambled in. Even in his dark, plain suit he had the tell-tale marks of a policeman.

"Person!"

The man at the desk, nervously shuffling papers, said yes, he was Person.

"Fun McDermid, from headquarters. You seen Barbados?"

"I've seen him."

"Well, then, you know that I know about this tie-up. I just wanted to drop you the news for fear Johnny hadn't made it plain enough, to lay off."

"I fixed a gimlet eye on the woman. 'I've seen you at the opera,' he said suddenly, snapping his fingers. 'I know you, ma'am, and that's a fact. Don't be springing anything on any friend of mine or I'll be obliged to see that your connection with this filthy rag (his arm swept the offices of The Tatletale) gets about.'

"The woman shrugged.

"Well, that wouldn't do you any good. No. Better do what I tell you. McDermid rumbled out of the door. The man threw out his hands expressively.

"There, you see?"

The extension telephone in the upstairs hall rang sharply. Liane went to answer it. Nora on the downstairs wire said, "It's for you, miss."

"Hello. This is McDermid. You're not to worry. It's all fixed, as I told you."

"Oh, thank you. A million million—"

"It's nothing. You're entirely welcome."

There was a faint buzzing on the wire. Then Shane's voice came through quite clearly. "You're an enemy."

Liane clicked frantically but the connection was cut off.

Mrs. Amberton called to her from her sitting-room as the girl passed down the hall.

"Come in and talk to me."

Liane obeyed with alacrity. She liked this slow-voiced, amiable woman.

"Tressa's been in town all day. Isn't it a fiendish one? I hate rain."

"It was snow yesterday. Too early for that but better than this drizzle."

Liane agreed. She saw herself again going tremblingly down the dirty side street to the police station. It seemed years ago instead of hours. Her heart was lighter now.

"Are you all ready for the wedding?" Mrs. Amberton asked lazily.

"Almost." Liane sat, lacing her fingers in and out.

"You're wearing a veil and everything?"

"Oh, yes, but it's to be very quiet. No maids. Just mother to give me away."

There was a little flurry on the stairs as the talk lapsed lamely. They could hear Nora saying, "You're wet through, miss."

"My dear! Fanny cried as Tressa pushed past. "Where have you been?"

"I've had the most frightful day. Tressa said, ignoring Liane, "Let me have a tub and rest before you start asking questions."

Uncle Wiggily and the Nippers

(By HOWARD R. GARIS)

Uncle Wiggily leaned back in his airship and laughed so loudly that the clothes basket part, in which he sat, shivered and shivered like a bowl full of jelly on Christmas morning.

"Ho! Ho! Ha!" laughed the rabbit gentleman.

"What's the matter?" asked the Bat. "You are such a funny fellow."

"Answered Uncle Wiggily.

"How come?" asked the Bat, who sometimes liked to talk as though he lived in the South. Where, as a matter of fact, are many Bats. "How come, you think I'm funny?"

"Well, look at yourself," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Not having a looking glass, or mirror, as it is called in polite society," said the Bat, "I can't very well."

"True enough," agreed the rabbit gentleman. "But, even as I look at you, I can see that you are very funny. You have the wings of a bird but the body of a mouse or rat."

"All bats are made in this way," said the Bat, as he rode along in the airship with the bunny. "Why it is, I don't know. But we bats are not like very much, though we are no harm. You see the birds won't let us fly with them because we have the body of an animal, won't let us live with them, because we have wings like a bird. So being neither a bird nor a beast, we have to flock by ourselves and often we get lonesome."

"I should think you might," agreed Uncle Wiggily. "But another funny thing about you is that, though you have wings and seem to fly very well, you want a ride in my airship. Why was that?"

"Oh, I became tired flying all by myself in the cool of the early evening," the bat answered. "You must know, Uncle Wiggily, that we bats cannot see very well in the daylight. We are made for seeing best after dark. So during the day we hang ourselves upside down in some dark cave, or under the edge of a barn. We fold our wings around our head to keep the light out of our eyes and we sleep all day and fly most of the night."

"That is very odd," said the rabbit, steering his airship up and to the right. "But you don't really mean you hang upside down when you sleep, do you?"

"Surely I do," the Bat replied. "Look here." He showed Uncle Wiggily two hooks, like long finger nails, on the lower edge of each wing. "It is by these hooks that we hang ourselves upside down in some dark place to stay all day," the Bat said. "Don't ask me why, because I don't know. I suppose some bats started the fashion years ago, of hanging upside down, and since then we have all done it rather than be thought out of fashion."

"Perhaps," agreed the Bat. "But it is quite a treat for me," he said, "to scout along through the air and not have to flap my wings. It is a very restful way to have your wings on your airship."

"No," Uncle Wiggily answered, "though some airships have wings, I just made this ship myself out of an old clothes basket, some toy circus balloons to lift it up and an electric fan to whizz around like a propeller to push me along."

"Very clever," said the Bat.

"Thanks," murmured the rabbit. "But a little while ago I had an accident. In a halcyon storm all my balloons burst and I would have crashed to the ground had not the eagle floated me down."

"Then it is a bad thing to have holes punctured in your balloons, is it?" asked the Bat.

"Just bad," said the Rabbit.

"Very then, all of a sudden, one of his balloons burst with a bang like a Fourth of July firecracker.

"What's that?" cried the Rabbit.

"Nippers! Nippers!" shouted the Bat.

"What are nippers?" asked the Rabbit.

"Mosquitoes!" said the Bat. "See those tiny, tiny, hungry mosquitoes nippers flying after you and with their beaks they will puncture all your balloons and you will fall unless I do something."

"What can you do?" asked the Rabbit, as a nipper burst another of the toy balloons. "What can you do?"

"I can catch all the nipping mosquitoes!" said the Bat. "I'll show you what I am for—flying by night and catching mosquitoes and other biting bugs!" With that the Bat caught all the nippers and saved Uncle Wiggily's airship from falling to the ground.

And if the top will stop spinning long enough for the Katydidd bug to hop on and get a ride, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's water-pail.

Quality considered, radio's greatest value!

VICTOR

8-tube Super-Heterodyne

RADIO

$119.50

Complete with tubes

Produced in CANADA

R-128

HERE is radio value built upon the solid foundation of greater performance, more appealing cabinet beauty, and finer quality... Consider these all-important factors carefully... compare! Then you will recognize the worth of our claim for the Victor Lowboy, "Quality considered, radio's greatest value!"

Remember, The Lowboy is an advanced Super-Heterodyne. Added to the superlative selectivity and sensitivity of the most modern Super-Heterodyne are the tonal perfection and noiseless operation of the new super-control tubes. Other features which make Victor Radio R-8 absolutely outstanding in performance and value are increased-range tone control... "trigger-touch" station selector... improved electro-dynamic speaker... all concentrated in a superbly engineered eight-tube Super-Heterodyne.

Only through Canadian production and Victor's vast scientific resources is such a radio possible at such a price—$119.50, complete with tubes.

Your Victor dealer will gladly demonstrate the Lowboy and the other Victor Super-Heterodynes... Highboy, $122.50... "Superette," $89.50, or with Telechron Clock, $105.50—all models complete with tubes. Also Victor Radio R-30... battery-operated Super-Heterodyne... $139.50, including eight tubes, less batteries.

"Sheltered" Girl Who Fears the World Into Which She Is Being Pushed—Is a Clean House Worth More Than a Cultivated Mind?

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been what is called a "sheltered" girl all my life. Never allowed to go anywhere without one of my family with me, never permitted to visit my girl friends or to go to places with them. Now our family is going to separate and I am full of fear as to what the future will hold and do not know how to take care of myself. Do you not think that mothers make a mistake in babying their children too much? R. L.

Answer—It is a distorted parental love and a colossal egotism that makes parents keep their children tied to their apron strings. It flatters their vanity to have their children dependent upon them for everything and come to them for advice and counsel and look up to them as the source of all supply. Also they feel that they can keep their children longer with them if they never let them make any outside ties or have any outside interests.

And in excuse for the parents, one must remember that they are so obsessed by their love for their children that they do not realize how selfish they are, nor how surely they are jeopardizing the child's future. For the one must come when every boy and girl must stand alone on their own feet, when they must depend on their own judgment, when they must live alone, and they are bound to stumble and fall if they have always held on to father's hand and been guided by his advice and had mother to comfort them.

Even the birds have intelligence enough to thrust their young out of the nest when the time comes and make fledglings try their own wings. Certainly human beings should be as wise and prepare their young for life by teaching them to depend upon themselves and make their own way in the world.

I believe that from their very infancy children should be taught to do things for themselves, to rely on themselves and to decide minor matters for themselves. They will make blunders and mistakes, but they will learn from them and it will fit them for a life in which the race goes to the swift and the battle to the strong.

Too much home life is not good for children. They become too much obsessed with the family point of view, too self-centred and they need the contact with the outside world, the broadening influence of strangers with different points of view.

And the mother love that absorbs the child often makes the enforced separation that must come in a normal life a tragedy. I often think of a girl I met once in a hotel on the other side of the world who was enduring agony of homesickness that was almost wrecking her reason and her young husband's happiness.

This young lady told me that she worshipped her mother and that in all her life she had never spent a single day or night away from her mother until she was married and started with her husband to the fine position he had been given with a rubber firm in Ceylon. She said that she had never decided a thing for herself or bought a garment or even one to town alone. Always mother had lived her life for her, dominated her, possessed her and when she was thrown out on her own she was frightened, bewildered, helpless, filled with despair.

This young lady had made a splendid marriage in every sense of the word, she was ruining it because her mother had made her too dependent upon her. And I thought that the cruellest mother alive could have done her daughter no greater injury.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a young married woman of the middle class and try to be a good housekeeper, but my in-laws are always criticizing me because I do not get down on my knees to scrub a floor and they do not approve of soap. I like cleanliness, but I do not believe in making it a fetish. Do you think that when people make a religion out of a routine job it is because they have nothing better to occupy their minds? If I did things the way they tell me to do, I would never have time to read even the newspapers. What do you think? MRS. T. R. J.

Answer—I think you are right and that about the worst sort of idolatry is the worship of the scrubbing brush. Cleanliness is next to godliness, but it is not above it.

I have been in homes that were so neat and orderly that they were more comfortable than a pig sty would have been. My hostess looked at my feet as if I had tracked in any dirt instead of at my face to see if I was glad to see her. Every time you moved a chair you were made to feel as if you had committed a sacrilege. It would have demanded superhuman courage to take a book down from a shelf, and to have made a spot on the tablecloth would have been regarded as a crime on a par with murder.

Such a house is not a home. It is a prison. No man ever looked forward to coming home to it at night. No child ever stays in it a moment longer than is absolutely necessary. Everybody flees from it to some other place where things are only moderately clean and never orderly, and where people can relax and enjoy themselves.

So you are exactly right not to sacrifice yourself to your house. When it comes to a choice between scrubbing the wall behind the kitchen stove and reading a good book, read the book. Your husband will not know whether there is a pinch of dust beneath the icebox, but he will know whether you are an interesting companion or have nothing to talk about except how hard you have worked all day.

And do not make the mistake that many a good housekeeper does of scrubbing and cleaning so much that she keeps herself so nervous and irritable that she is not safe to speak to. There is not a man living who would not rather have a wife who was slack in her housekeeping and amiable than one who was a blue-ribbon housekeeper with a temper that was hung on a hair-trigger.

Sea-lions and Sea-elephants

Partly playful, partly serious names used for some animals which live in the ocean. The seals are often called "sea-lions" and in this case the name is a good reason behind it. Careful study of the bones has proved that animals are built a great deal like bears; and their ancestors are believed to have been closely related to, perhaps actually members of the family.

A California Sea-lion

The ancestors of whales, the fur seals and the walrus were once land-dwelling animals. Study the bones in a flipper, and you will find that they are similar to leg bones. The same is true of fur seals, sea-lions and sea-elephants.

The sea-lion is in no sense a member of the lion or cat family. Because animals in this group have distinctive names, they are playfully called

"sea-lions." They are closely related to seals. The northern sea-lion, which swims in the waters of the Pacific Ocean, is a big fellow. The male may reach a length of thirteen feet. California sea-lions are not so large. They have hoarse barking voices and are easily tamed.

The sea-elephant is a huge hair seal which is common around some of the islands in the far southern part of the Pacific. The males sometimes grow to a length of more than twenty feet, and may measure twelve feet around the chest. The females are not nearly so large, seldom measuring more than nine feet in length. The male sea-elephant has a trunk about twelve inches long, and this—along with his size—has provided the name. Sea-elephants are really overgrown hair seals. Sea-elephants were once common around Lower California, but they have been killed off and are now rare in that region. Oil from their blubber (fat layers beneath the hide) is valued. A single sea-elephant has provided more than 200 gallons of oil. (This article may be placed in "Nature" section of your scrapbook.) To-morrow—Swift-footed Antelopes.

Cutting Advice

In making cuttings from bushes for transplanting, be sure to take a "heel" portion of the old wood, where the shoot joins the main stem. This old wood takes root more readily than the new wood of the shoot.

AT THE THEATRES

SALLY O'NEIL IS STAR AT CAPITOL

"The Brat" Opens To-day and Provides Fine Entertainment

In keeping with the popular demand for novelty on the screen, something new in the way of film entertainment is promised with "The Brat," which started to-day at the Capitol Theatre, with Sally O'Neil in the title role.

A penniless Cinderella from the Bowery is taken to the home of a wealthy author, who is looking for a heroine for his next novel. The girl's dual romances with the writer and his coming brother, the jealousy, her coming aroases in the two society girls who have already marked the author as their matrimonial prey, and the resulting complications all keep the interest at a high pitch.

Allan Dinehart, noted Broadway stage star, who makes his screen debut in the film, enacts the role of the author, and Frank Albertson that of the brother, while June Collyer and Virginia Cherrill play the two society girls.

Billie Burke Chooses Fine Play For Tour

Describing her husband as a sour old crabapple sitting under the Vinegar Tree, Laura Merrick, the heroine of "The Vinegar Tree," Paul Osborn's sparkling and sophisticated comedy of Long Island society folks, gives the title to the play which brings Billie Burke as its star to the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, September 28 and 29.

Never, it is said, has the charming and irrepressible red-headed idol of a million flappers had a role which suited her so deftly. "As the utterly foolish but perfectly adorable little wife who yearns for a gentleman who will feed her romance instead of platitudes, she flits through the play leaving a trail of laughter and enjoyment behind her."

Belasco and Curran, who had the courage to bring Miss Burke to the Coast, have seen to it that her support was up to, or even better, than their usual standard. They have engaged such fine players as William Morris and Julie Dillon. Mail orders are now being filled.

Where To Go To-night

ON THE SCREEN
Capitol—"The Brat," starring Sally O'Neil.
Coliseum—"Tell England," British International Picture.
Dominion—"The Secret Call," with Richard Arlen.
Columbia—"Buck Jones in 'The Avenger.'" Playhouse—"Extravagance," starring June Collyer.
Crystal Garden—Swimming, Dancing and Miniature Golf.

PLENTY OF ACTION SEEN IN "THE AVENGER"

Fights, thrills, trigger-quick action, the glamorous exciting days of the California gold rush of '49, Buck Jones in a new romantic role—all these things are seen in "The Avenger," Columbia's latest feature which opened at the Columbia Theatre to-day.

The plot is based upon the historically true adventures of Joaquin Murietta, a famous California outlaw. He was forced into banditry by the persecution of prospectors who came west in the search of gold. Without shedding one drop of blood he manages eventually to wreak vengeance on three men who had wronged him.

DOMINION THEATRE

William B. Davidson, the honest magistrate of "The Vice Squad," is seen as a man of a different calling in the "Secret Call," starring Peggy Shannon and Richard Arlen, which is now showing at the Dominion Theatre. In "The Secret Call" Davidson is presented as "the boss"—a leader of a political "machine" in a big city.

COLISEUM THEATRE

General Sir Ian Hamilton, who commanded the Mediterranean Expeditionary Force in 1915, not only had the success of "Tell England" at heart from the moment the production of this epic of the Gallipoli campaign was first mooted, but he also expressed his willingness to take part in the picture in order to accentuate its authenticity. "Tell England" is now showing at the Coliseum Theatre.

TODAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Torn between Love and Revenge—three scores to settle before he can scale the heights of Heaven—BUCK JONES remains true to his oath in this outstanding triumph of his romantic career.

"The Isle of Dreams" Is Tunesful Vehicle

Much interest has been aroused by the announcement that Victoria is to have a stock company this winter at the popular Playhouse Theatre, on Yates Street. On Monday evening, September 28, G. Donald Gray, well-known and popular radio singer, will head a company of talented actors and actresses in the first play of the season. Chauncey Olcott's widely-known "The Isle of Dreams" has been chosen for the first vehicle, and those who have seen it before will welcome its return to the stage of Victoria. It is complete with an interesting plot, delightful music and will give Mr. Gray ample scope for his fine tenor voice.

The company that Mr. Gray is bringing with him is a fine one and is composed of a number of players that have had experience in theatres in all the large cities of the Pacific Coast, while some of them have played in the east and in Winnipeg. R. D. Wakefield, who is at present in Victoria, will act as business manager for the company.

COMING TO DOMINION

Ernst Lubitch, conceded by many to be the foremost director of motion pictures, and the maker of two outstanding successes, "The Love Parade" and "Monte Carlo," has turned out another fine entertainment, "The Smiling Lieutenant," starring the imitable Frenchman, Maurice Chevalier.

"The Smiling Lieutenant," coming to the Dominion Theatre Saturday, is a typical Lubitch production. Its humor is sly, sophisticated, and, at times, hysterical. From the story of a gay and carefree military officer who loves one girl and is forced to marry another, a princess of royal blood, he has fashioned a romantic comedy of indestructible charm which critics and audiences throughout the country have labeled his most entertaining picture since the advent of talking pictures.

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE

Dorothy Christy, the stunning blonde who played the Englishwoman who furthered the romance between the American boy and the English girl in "The Love Parade," is now in "The Smiling Lieutenant," playing a prominent role in the Tiffany super-production of "Extravagance." As an extravagant wife Miss Christy wears many beautiful clothes, including a costly coat of sable. "Extravagance" is the current attraction at the Playhouse Theatre.
